

THE STANFORD INTERIOR JOURNAL.

VOLUME XXXVIII. NO. 42.

STANFORD, LINCOLN COUNTY, KENTUCKY, TUESDAY, MAY 30, 1911.

EVERY TUESDAY AND FRIDAY.

McKECHNIE TURNS UP IN PORTLAND, OREGON

MESSAGE FROM HIS BROTHER
SAYS MISSING MAN IS THERE WITH MIND IMPAIRED.

J. A. Hammond, of Moreland, was in Stanford, Monday and said that a message had been received by his daughter, Mrs. Robert L. McKechnie, that her husband who disappeared three weeks ago from his home in Louisville, had turned up at the home of his brother in Portland, Ore., and that his mind is impaired. The message came from Edward McKechnie, a brother of the missing man, who has made his home in the west for some time.

This is the first information that the family of Mr. McKechnie has had of his whereabouts since he disappeared. He was superintendent of agents for the Commonwealth Life Insurance Company, of Louisville, and was held in high esteem by the company. He quit the service of the company. He quit warning, and until nothing had been heard of him, though every means of ascertaining his whereabouts had been employed.

Mrs. McKechnie, who is with her father, at Moreland, had been prostrated over the disappearance of her husband and is in a serious condition. She had intended to go to Louisville in order to assist in the investigations which were being made, but has been unable to do so.

Grover McKechnie and Mr. Hammond were in Louisville last week consulting a private detective whom they had employed to inquire into the case. Both Mr. Hammond and Grover McKechnie were of the belief that Robert McKechnie had been foully dealt with, and were very much surprised when the telegram came from Portland announcing that the missing man had turned up there.

While any news to the effect that McKechnie is alive was welcome the information that his mind is impaired came as a great shock to his family. He had never shown any indication of being irrational and no cause can be assigned for the sudden impairment of his mentality. When last seen he was in good health and spirits and of perfectly sound mind.

AND WE'RE GOING TO DO IT, TOO.

There are quite a number of subscribers to the Interior Journal who are considerably behind with their subscriptions. We have sent out notices several times, but some of you have paid no attention to them. Many of those who do not seem inclined to pay up will be dropped from our lists after the 1st of June and the accounts placed in the hands of an attorney for collection. We do not desire to drop anyone from our list, but the cost of paper, and other material has advanced tremendously and we simply cannot afford to send the paper to those who will not pay for it. Please look at the date on the label of your paper and see if you are among the delinquents. And don't get mad if you don't get your paper, for we can't afford to give it away. Nuf Sed.

ANOTHER LETTER
FROM SQUIRE M'KECHNIE

New York, May 25

Dear Interior Journal:—

Just before starting out on the deep blue sea, I thought I would write you a few lines, as our friends through curiosity at least will likely want to know how far we have gotten on our journey to Scotland. We took in the city of New York yesterday, and got to see President W. H. Taft, but did not know who he was until he was out of sight. Our attention was all by a policeman galloping his horse up 32nd street and yelling to clear the streets. I told my wife it was to clear the streets for the fire brigade, then came the autos with the party. I thought they were well dressed for firemen as they had on bee gum hats, and making inquiry found it was Mr. Taft and party, then it was too late to size the crowd up, as I don't want to detain the ship from starting. I will close for this time, will write from the other side of a narrative.

Yours,
JAS. M'KECHNIE

WASH THOSE PIMPLES OFF

Use D. D. D., that mild, soothing wash, that recognized remedy for Eczema and all skin troubles. First drops take away that awful buring itch, cleanse the skin—wash away every pimple—every impurity. Nothing like D. D. D. for the complexion.

Get a 25 cent trial bottle today—worth ten times its cost to have a bottle in the house. At any rate, prop into our store to talk over the merits of this wonderful prescription. Shurgars and Tanner Stanford Ky.

Brown-Cook

FORMER LINCOLNITE WEDS
BEAUTIFUL GIRL AT DAN-VILLE.

Much interest is felt here in the wedding at Danville last Thursday afternoon, of Mr. Jesse F. Cook, of Lexington but born and reared in this county and Miss Laetitia Brown, of Lexington, which took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John S. Baughman, in Boyle. Mr. Cook as a great many relatives and friends in Lincoln who will extend heartfelt congratulations while his bride is also well known and popular here and in this section of the state. The Lexington Brown had this note of the wedding:

The marriage of Miss Laetitia Brown to Mr. J. F. Cook, both of this city, was celebrated Thursday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John S. Baughman in Danville.

The couple had planned to be married in June but while the bride was visiting in Danville it was decided to have the celebration earlier and in that city.

It was a quiet home wedding with only a few relatives and friends present. Dr. Cecil V. Cooke of the Baptist church officiating.

The house was decorated beautifully with flowers and plants and the bride wore a gray tailored suit with pretty hat. Her bouquet was of pink roses. She is the elder daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry T. Brown of this city, is unusually handsome and lovely, and widely popular both in Fayette county, and Lexington also in Danville and other cities.

Mr. Cook is a native of Stanford Lincoln county, having come to Lexington about ten years ago and is connected in the stock business with Mr. A. A. Jewell. He is a man of splendid qualities and has numerous friends throughout the state.

After the wedding the bridal couple are coming to Lexington and will be at the Phoenix Hotel for a few days before leaving for a trip to Canada and other points returning to be at home after August the first to their friends in Lexington.

The news is an interesting surprise for the perfect happiness of the bride and bridegroom.

Arm Mashed Off

FORMER LINCOLN MAN INJURED
IN LEXINGTON

News has been received by his friends and relatives in this county that Joe Chandler, formerly of Lincoln, sustained a severe injury at Lexington last week, when his right arm was mashed off in some machinery of the Lexington Roller Mills by whom he was employed. Mr. Chandler is a son-in-law of Mr. John Raines, of the Nail's Creek section, and his many friends in this section, will regret exceedingly to learn of the accident.

MORELAND

The appearance of some of the stores have been very much improved by painting and other repairs.

Messrs. Harvey Hopkins, Ben and Willie Pruitt started last Wednesday afternoon on a fishing trip. Mr. James H. Pruitt went as chaperon.

Mr. W. G. Montgomery returned last Thursday from Chattanooga, having closed a good meeting.

The young people of Moreland took a hay ride last Wednesday night. They went almost to Danville and then back by Junction City. Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Neal chaperoned the party.

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Cox and family are visiting relatives here.

The Moreland Dramatic Club will soon have Diamonds and Hearts ready for presentation.

The ball game played here last Thursday between Moreland and Crab Orchard resulted 18 to 5 in favor of Moreland.

RAH FOR RODNEY

(Harradale Herald.)

Through the watchfulness of County Attorney Keenon Mercer county is likely to get a good sum of money in the treasury. It will be remembered that at the last October term of Court, Mr. Keenon secured a judgment for $1,500 against the Goods Roads Machinery Company. The prosecution grew out of the purchase of a rock crusher by the county last year, and the indictment was based on the anti-trust statute. The Machinery Company is a Pennsylvania corporation and paid no attention to the suit. Mr. Keenon had an eye to the windward, however, and found out that Spencer county owed the Machinery Company $1,200 and in order to collect the Mercer county judgment he attached the money. Then the Machinery Company sat up, and took notice and showed fight. It filed a counter claim and asked that the $1,500 judgment be set aside on the grounds that the company had received no notice of the first case in which the judgment was rendered, and that the summons was not served on an agent of the company. Judge Walker said that it was too late for the company to begin "hostilities," and decided in favor of Mercer county. It looks as if Mercer will be able to collect the judgment.

Yours,
JAS. M'KECHNIE

WASH THOSE PIMPLES OFF

Use D. D. D., that mild, soothing wash, that recognized remedy for Eczema and all skin troubles. First drops take away that awful buring itch, cleanse the skin—wash away every pimple—every impurity. Nothing like D. D. D. for the complexion.

Get a 25 cent trial bottle today—worth ten times its cost to have a bottle in the house. At any rate, prop into our store to talk over the merits of this wonderful prescription. Shurgars and Tanner Stanford Ky.

TRANSYLVANIA WONT LET HOPPER GO

INTERESTING DISCUSSION ON YOUNG PREACHER BY PRES-BYTERY SUNDAY

An adjourned meeting of the Transylvania Presbytery, which recently met at Richmond, was held here on Sunday afternoon, on the day of the installation of Rev. P. L. Bruce, the new pastor of the Presbytery church for the purpose of acting upon the case of Rev. Will Hopper, formerly of Stanford, who has just graduated from the Presbyterian Theological Seminary at Louisville and has been called to the pastorate of the congregation at Eminence. While taking his theological course, Rev. Hopper has been supplying for the churches at Burnside and Pisgah, small congregations, and the leading members of the Transylvania Presbytery, in which they are located, seemed to be anxious that he continue to fill those pastorates, and it is said expressed a willingness to pay him the difference in salary between what these smaller churches can afford to give and what the congregation at Eminence offers.

The discussion of the case Sunday afternoon approached quite an interesting stage, and so strong is feeling said to have become, that when a final vote was taken, many of the members in attendance did not participate in the ballot. Mr. King a prominent member of the Eminence congregation, came here in behalf of Mr. Hopper and the call he has received from the Henry county church, and made a vigorous argument in favor of his release by the Transylvania Presbytery. Dr. Planton, of Danville, and others opposed the transfer of the young divine to the Louisville Presbytery in which the Eminence church is located.

There was only one vote in favor of permitting Rev. Hopper to go to Eminence, that of Rev. Carey Blain pastor of the Hustonville church.

Those friends of Rev. Hopper however are said to be in favor of his ignoring the action of the Presbytery and accepting the call to Eminence.

The Transylvania Presbytery welcomed from its sister presbytery in Tennessee Rev. P. L. Bruce who comes as the local pastor.

Administrators' Sale

As administrator of W. B. Land, deceased, I will on Saturday, June 3, 1911, sell at public outcry to the highest and best bidder a lot of household and kitchen furniture, 15 to 20 barrels of corn in crib, a lot of baled hay, one spring wagon, one one-horse wagon, one new buggy, three horses, two cows, a lot of bacon, hams, etc., two sets of harness and other items too numerous to mention.

All sums of $0 and under cash in hand, all sums over ten dollars purchaser will be required to execute a note with good security payable in bank for six months.

Sale will begin at 10 o'clock A. M.

at the late home of W. B. Land on East Main street, Stanford, Ky.

W. L. McCARTY, Admr. W. B. Land, Col. J. P. Chandler, Auctioneer.

NOTICE

All parties having claims against the estate of W. B. Land, deceased, are hereby directed to file same with the undersigned, properly proven as required by law on or before June 10, 1911, and all parties knowing themselves indebted to W. B. Land, or the firm of Land & Buchanan will settle same at once.

W. L. McCARTY, Administrator of W. B. Land, deceased.

MONEY TO LOAN.

On Lincoln county farms, in any amount over $3,000 rate of interest 5 1/2 per cent. Term, 5 years, with privilege to pay after one year. First mortgage. If you are in need of money will loan you up to 40 per cent of the value of your land. For further particulars write to G. B. Swinebroad, Attorney, Lancaster, Ky.

25-2

SOUR MILK.

Milk is composed of solids and water. Coagulated milk, which is called curd in the country, is rich in casein. It contains carbon, hydrogen, oxygen, nitrogen and sulphur, a combination of animal chemicals of great value. Whey is the watery part of milk. It contains a natural sugar. Many people throw sour milk away. Wise ones utilize it. By draining off the water curd remains as a solid. Put a cupful of curd in a cheesecloth and twist the loose ends together and hang it where it will drain overnight. In the morning place it in a dish and flake it with a fork and salt. Give it to the children and tell them it is the same thing that Miss Muffit was eating when along came the spider.—New York World.

THE KINGDOM OF HEART'S CONTENT

PRESENTED AT CLOSING EXER-CISES OF JUNCTION CITY HIGH SCHOOL—PERSONAL NOTES.

Junction City, May 29.—The exercises incidental to the closing of the Graded and High school in this city were opened last Wednesday evening at the Hall by members of the High school entertaining the patrons, patrons, friends and well-wishers of the school. Delightful refreshments were served and the hall was too small to hold the crowd. On Thursday evening the play, "The Kingdom of Heart's Content" was presented by the High school members. This proved to be an admirable vehicle for the young actors and actresses, who acquitted themselves well. Several musical numbers between the acts served to entertain the crowd. These were played by Miss Lula Bates and her brother, Edgar, of Danville; Zena Rogers and others of this place.

On Wednesday evening the hall was well filled with friends of the school, who despite the extreme heat had come out to hear the closing exercises.

The invocation was said by Dr. C. V. Cook of Danville, Rev. Strother, of Georgetown, having been unable to come.

Miss Laura Kelly, the graduate, then read her essay, which was entitled "The Heritage of Tomorrow" handling the subject with a great deal of force and judgment.

Miss Lucy Hankla gave a violin solo, accompanied on the piano by Miss Lula Bates, of Danville.

Dr. Cook followed this was a half comical, half-serious talk on "Good Will."

His talk was loudly applauded and was followed by Miss Lucile Rawlings on the violin. Following this Prof. H. A. Stomp made the annual address to the graduates, which was followed by a violin solo by Frank McGraw. Then in a well timed and spoken address Prof. J. W. Rawlings presented the diploma to Miss Kelley, this being followed by the Bennington. The singing of Miss Willie Benton Logsdon or the songs "See, Love, I bring thee Flowers" and "A Memory" was a feature of the occasion.

Sterling Chase, son of Dr. H. S. Chase, of Somerset, was stricken with appendicitis while here taking in the Commencement. His father was telephoned for and upon his arrival took the young man to the St. Elizabeth hospital in Lebanon, where an operation will be performed in a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. George Crow, of Danville, who have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Robert Crow and Mr. Matt Crow, left Wednesday for Joplin, Mo.

Miss Shelby Mason, of Lancaster, is visiting Miss Willie Benton Logsdon.

Misses Ruth Boyd, of Indianapolis, and Margaret Overstreet and Lottie Westerfield, of Parksville, were guests of Mrs. H. G. Wilson during Commencement.

The remains of Mrs. Wiltse Hamner, who died Wednesday, were buried in the local cemetery Thursday afternoon. She is survived by Ed. Porter, Oscar, Jim Hamner and Mrs. Belle Blackety. She was 68 years of age.

Mrs. Margaret Brown left Monday for a visit of several weeks to her father, Mr. George Vermilion in Danville.

Miss Louisa Lingle has finished her school at the hall on Rolling Fork and is now with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. T. Lingle.

Mrs. Mary Jenkins, aged 83, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. John Rounton Friday evening, as a result of a fall in which she sustained a broken arm. She was the widow of the late Clinton Jenkins, of Hustonville, and is survived by one daughter, Mrs. J. F. Rounton. Her remains were taken to Hustonville Saturday afternoon, where they were buried in the cemetery at that place Sunday in the presence of a large crowd of friends and loved ones.

Mrs. Pearl Evans, of Harrodsburg, is the guest of Mrs. Kendrick Kelly.

Mrs. W. A. Reynolds has returned from a visit to Mrs. H. S. Chase in Somerset.

Miss Agnes Green is visiting in Danville, being the guest of Miss Marshall Palmer.

Mr. F. T. Burke is having the bar

shop occupied by Johnnie West painted.

Miss Lucelia Brown, of Parksville, who has been visiting her aunt, Mrs. J. H. Hankla, has returned to her home.

Mrs. William Caskey, of Corbin, is visiting her mother, Mrs. Mary Frances Wells.

Mrs. William Trosper and neice,

Mrs. Anna Ohler left for Corbin Monday day, where the latter will be with her father and mother and the former will spend the summer with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Orrell.

Miss Grace Stone, of Burgin, who has been teaching in Middlesboro, stopped over with her friend, Miss Ruth Keane, on her way home.

Mr. and Mrs. A. B. C. Dinwiddie have returned from a visit to his sisters, Misses Mattie and Minnie Dinwiddie, in Louisville.

Mr. E. B. Sweeney and daughter, little Miss Mildred made a business trip to Stanford on Tuesday.

<p

FRANKS

Bitterly Arraigns Judge O'Rear in Speech at Barbourville.

OPENS CAMPAIGN FOR NOMINATION

Declares That Republicans Must Stand
For Law Enforcement or Meet
Political Ruin.

DENOUNCES MOBS AND NIGHT RIDERS

Barbourville, Ky., May 22.—Rarely if ever in the history of Kentucky has one candidate for the nomination for Governor of the State so mercilessly arraigned another as E. T. Franks arraigned Judge O'Rear in his opening speech here today. After declaring for redistricting, for tax revision, for better schools and better roads, for the endorsement of the county unit bill as advocated in the 1907 platform, Mr. Franks said that the most important matter before the people of the State today is the enforcement of the law, and he declared in effect that there are not enough night-riders and mob-members in the Republican party to nominate or elect a candidate who does not stand firmly for law and order. Mr. Franks' speech, which was heard and approved by a record-breaking crowd, was in part as follows:

When I made my announcement as a candidate for Governor, I stated that I would not make a speaking campaign for the nomination, giving as a reason my fear that it would engender bad feeling, and thus make it more difficult for us to win in November, but self-preservation is universally allowed to be the first law of nature, and if Judge O'Rear or any one else thinks that he can come and attack me in my own home without getting into a scrap, he is destined to a rude awakening when he tries it. Hence I have decided to take the stand in advocacy of my claims for the Republican nomination for Governor, and if it is a speaking campaign that Judge O'Rear wants, I shall accommodate him to his heart's content, though I repeat my opinion that it would have been better for the party if no speeches had been made until after the July convention.

I have been here many times before. In every hard-fought battle that you have had for the past twenty years I have come to your aid at the first call, and I have enjoyed my visits to your city very much indeed. I always feel at home in the mountains. I have campaigned so much in the mountains that I feel as much at home up here as I do in Jackson's Purchase, where I was born and reared, or in the Pennywile, where my home has been so long. In the last twenty years I have had the pleasure of speaking in one hundred and ten of the one hundred and fifteen counties of the State. Wherever I have spoken, my views on the fundamental principles of the Republican party are well known.

The natural resources of Kentucky are not surpassed in importance or equaled in variety by those of any other State. Her shores are washed by more miles of navigable streams than are possessed by any other State; her soil is as fertile as the Delta of the Nile; many of her mountains and valleys are covered with virgin timber that has never yet heard the sound of the woodman's ax; no State has more coal, and none can produce it more cheaply; we have fluor-spar, lead, zinc, and the best quality of fire-clays in abundance.

There is enough water power unused and going to waste, to operate every wheel and spindle in the State without using a bushel of coal, and yet steam coal can be delivered at our furnace doors at a lower cost than almost anywhere else on this earth. We are in close proximity to the fast-developing Southland, where there awaits us a ready market for everything that we manufacture. We have the natural resources, and we have the men to develop them. A braver and more patriotic citizenship, on the whole, is not to be found in any State, and why should not Kentucky forge to the front as one of the leading States of the Union in farming, in manufactures, in mining, in education and in all the varied interests of a great people inhabiting a great land?

For years we have been shipping our raw material elsewhere. It has been worked up and shipped back to us, we paying the freight both ways and losing the potential profit. Why do we not manufacture at home? There must be a reason. What is it? There is something radically wrong, or these conditions would not exist. I will tell you what is wrong. Our taxing system is wrong, and we do not enforce our laws or preserve public order.

We should begin our program of change by altering our apportionment laws, so as to give every citizen of the State equal representation. I do not hesitate to say that our apportionment laws are a disgrace to civilization, a crime in the garb of law, and should make every honest man of whatever party hang his head in shame when he thinks of the great injustice that has been done to the people by Democratic legislators, who cared not for the public good, but did the bidding of those enemies of the State who had before them and in them nothing but their lust for continued power as a necessary condition of their political existence.

Mob Rule and Night Riders.

There should be a change in our laws relative to mobs. Better protection should be given to persons accused of crime, whether such persons are in jail or in the hands of arresting officers. It is a practice all too common in Kentucky for men to hand themselves together, generally under cover of darkness, and take from the officers of the law persons accused of offenses more or less grave, and put them to death.

I favor a law giving the Governor the right, under certain conditions, to remove from office any officer or jailor who shall permit a mob to take from such officer or from the jail any prisoner charged with any crime whatever.

This law has been recently invoked with good effect by a Democratic Governor in Ohio and by a Republican Governor in Illinois, and we should have such a law in Kentucky. Kentucky has for years been clamoring for more business and inviting immigration. More than one million immigrants landed in the United States in 1910, nearly 300,000 of them farm laborers. How many of them came to Kentucky? A surprisingly small number. Where did they go? To every place except Kentucky. But that is not the worst. A great number of those we already had—citizens of Kentucky—have gone away within the past year. You can scarcely travel on a train leaving Kentucky that you do not see our Kentuckians flocking to other States, seeking homes in a distant land—and why is it? You can talk for business, you can talk for immigration, you can talk prosperity for our State until you grow hoarse, but it does no good.

Law and Order Must Come First.

First, and before everything else in the world, must come Law and Order. Fewer mobs and less of the mob spirit and the certain and unsparring enforcement of the law will convince the world that we mean what we say, and then we shall get men and money from everywhere. Money and men joined together make business, and when we shall have them Old Kentucky will blossom as the rose. I think it necessary for our platform at this time to speak out in no uncertain terms for Law and Order. A county or a State or a nation that will not protect its citizens, from the highest to the humblest, and all alike, is not worthy of its name and place, and the right to govern should be taken from it.

E. T. FRANKS

Gentlemen, it is needless for me to say to you that I am a Republican, holding fast to all the fundamental principles of the party, and that means that I am not an Insurgent Republican. I do not allow Senator LaFollette and Senator Bourne to do my thinking, and I do not propose to follow where they lead. I noticed an article in a Louisville paper of May 11, with a Washington date line, saying that LaFollette and Bourne are likely to head a new national ticket.

My friend, Judge O'Rear, in apologizing for some of the things in his platform, said that such well-known Republicans as Senator LaFollette and Senator Bourne had been advocating them for years. Judge O'Rear may follow where they lead if he wishes, but I say to you that I will not.

I asked a friend a few days ago if he believed in a progressive Republican. "That depends," he said. "There are three ways a man can progress and be a progressive Republican. One way is toward the Republican party, another way is toward the Democratic party, and the third is toward what was once known as the Populist party. It depends on which way a man progresses whether I believe in him as a progressive Republican—or not."

That reminds me of an inscription I once read on a tombstone: "Take up thy cross and follow me." A wag wrote beneath:

"To follow I'm not intent Till I find out which way you went."

The so-called progressive or insurgent Republicans of the House and Senate have been very kind to President Taft in the past fifteen months, and he ought to feel very kindly toward them. They have succeeded in getting him a Democratic House by a sixties-seven majority, and counting LaFollette, Bourne, Clapp, Pindexter, Crown and Bristow with the Democrats (as they won't vote with the Republicans), they have also given Mr. Taft a Democratic Senate. I am not a new-fangled Republican. I am one of those who believe in the platform adopted at Chicago in 1908, and I propose to stand by that platform and contend for the faith expressed in it until the party shall speak again with the same authority. Progressive? Why, the Republican party is the most progressive party that has had an existence under this government in the last hundred years. It broke the shackles from four million slaves and made them freemen. It fought the greatest war of modern times and preserved the Union of States, making it the greatest nation in the history of man. It resisted specie payments and made every dollar in the land as good as every other dollar. It set the seal of condemnation on the Democratic nightmare of rag money. It fought free silver to the death and there are now none to mourn its departure.

I am rooted and grounded in the faith that we must have protection for American industry and American labor in order to have and maintain prosperity in this country.

I think it proper that I should make myself thoroughly understood as to that great army of men who till the soil, the farmers of Kentucky, because it has been said by some who are supporting other candidates that some of the farmers of Kentucky would vote against me because of what I said about the Night Riders in a speech I delivered at Hopkinsville in 1908. I do not hold to the belief that Republican farmers are against me on that account or any other account. I was reared on a farm. I have helped the farmers, my neighbors, to build their homes, roll their logs, grow their tobacco, thresh their wheat, make up their molasses—in fact, I have done some of every kind of work known to the farming fraternity in this state. I have mixed and mingled with them all my life. I know the farmers of Kentucky, who they are and what they stand for, and I am proud that so many of them know me, as I am proud to know them.

In that speech at Hopkinsville I stated that if I were a farmer I would belong to all of their organizations that sought in a lawful way to enhance the price of farm products. I believe the farmers have a right to organize for self-protection, and I would be glad to see every farmer in the land take a greater interest in the welfare of every other farmer. I know the hardships through which the farmer passes each year as he toils to make an honest living for himself and those dependent upon him, eating two meals a day by lamplight the year round, taking chances with the elements, to have his crop destroyed by drought or flood, and should he escape both and gather abundantly at harvest time, to have great combinations of wealth to sit in judgment on the prices, forcing them down sometimes below the cost of production. This is the common lot of the farmer in Kentucky. I know these things are hard, and they should be remedied at once—but who is to do it? The Democratic party will not do it, because it has controlled legislation in Kentucky since 1865 without a break, except at one time the Republicans had the House, but the Democrats controlled the Senate. If there is no law in Kentucky to punish great combinations of wealth, formed and used to oppress the people, it is the fault of the Democratic party and not the fault of the Republican party. I promise, if elected Governor, to enforce impartially, without fear or favor, such existing laws as may be invoked against the employment of capital in a manner oppressive to the people, and to use all the power that may be at my command to secure the passage of laws that will effectually break up these wrongful operations of capital. That is the remedy and the only remedy.

"But" one will say, "we can not get our officers to enforce the law." Then you should elect men who will enforce the law. But for God's sake, for the sake of your State, your home and your family, do not undertake to secure redress through the mob. A mob never settled anything except to bring disgrace upon the community, and forever damn those who engaged in the mob. It is an insult to any honest farmer to say that he will get mad at you for denouncing mobs. Mobs are in nearly every instance composed of cowards and of the lower elements in the community, and for any man to become incensed when you denounce a mob will naturally cause the public to think that he was either in the mob or was in sympathy with it. And a man that is in sympathy with the mob and does not join it if he has the opportunity, is a greater coward than those who do join, and that is the reason he does not join.

Judge O'Rear on Mob Rule.

Judge O'Rear had something to say about mobs in his speech at Hopkinsville, a part of which I endorse and a part of which I do not endorse. He said, in speaking of the attitude of Governor Willson toward him: "The Governor knew my views on the situation, for at his instance I had several conferences with him on the subject. I said in the speech (the Frankfort speech) that the Governor was to be commanded for his efforts to restore peace and protect life and property, as well as to bring to punishment the violators of the law."

If Judge O'Rear had stopped there the world would have said: "Well done, good and faithful servant." But listen to what he said next, which spoils all that had gone before:

"But I further said that in my opinion the disorders were symptomatic; that they reflected the feeling of resentment of many growers that they had suffered long oppression, and that the law had not afforded them any remedy; that the surest way to prevent similar outbreaks was to remove the cause of them; that the growers could not be convinced that they were not being outrageously oppressed by threats of punishment; that you could not push an idea through an Anglo-Saxon's head with a bayonet."

What does Judge O'Rear mean by that? Does he mean to say that the Governor ought not to have called out soldiers to prevent murder, arson and intimidation? He says:

"The farmers were being depressed by threats. The disorders were symptomatic."

Which no one denies, but we differ as to the remedy. Does he mean by that that the right way to settle the troubles was through the mob, the torch and the whipping post? Why does he not say: "Gentlemen, your troubles are real and your grievance great, but your remedy is in the law and you must not take it into your own hands." He says:

"The growers could not be convinced that they were not being outrageously oppressed by threats of punishment."

Who was threatening the honest tobacco growers? The only threats that anybody heard of were against the Night Riders and by the Night Riders. Nobody made any threats against the honest tobacco growers except the night riders. I protest against Judge O'Rear or any one else placing the night rider and the honest tobacco grower upon the same level or in the same class, and again ask, Who threatened the honest tobacco growers?

Judge O'Rear said:

"You can not push an idea through an Anglo-Saxon's head with a bayonet."

Who were these "Anglo-Saxons" that you speak of that the soldiers were sent out to suppress? Were they not night riders? Judge O'Rear knew that the soldiers never molested any one except night riders. If the officers of the law in the counties where these night riders lived and did their work could not or would not suppress them, do you mean to say that the soldiers could not change their ideas from those of mob members to those of peaceful citizens? They were killing people, they were burning homes, they were laying cities in ashes, they were driving men from the State. These men were being threatened, and no one else was threatened—and yet the judge says that you could not push an idea through their heads with a bayonet. And again he says:

"If, however, any opponent, Democrat or Republican, cares to take up the other side, I am prepared to meet him on the subject."

I will take the other side and make my appeal to the law-abiding people of Kentucky. I am willing to abide by their decision, even on his statement made at Hopkinsville, and ignore his statement at Frankfort, that he waited three years to explain, and which he did not then explain until he became a candidate for Governor.

Of course the Democrats are not going to fight Judge O'Rear now. They want him nominated, and will hold their fire until after the nominations are made. But I here and now enter my solemn protest against the nomination by the Republican party of a candidate for Governor holding the views on law and order that have been expressed publicly by Judge O'Rear. Whenever the Republican party, the party of Lincoln, of Grant, Garfield, Harrison, McKinley, Roosevelt and Taft, forsakes the principles of Law and Order and winks at mobs and mob violence, it should go into exile and never again boast of more than half a century of the greatest achievements known to political history.

Judge O'Rear may have thought he was right when he made that statement, and if the people think he said the right thing or the thing that ought to have been said at that time, nothing else being equal, he should be nominated, but when you do nominate him, if you do, you have struck a blow at the very cornerstone of civil liberty. You should think well before making your decision.

The conference to which Judge O'Rear alludes was called by the Governor just after the night riders had put the torch to Princeton, Hopkinsville and Russellville, and about the time that Hiram Hedges was murdered in cold blood by the night riders in the presence of his wife and babies and in his own home. It was at this time that lovers of law and order should have had their wits about them. They should have said and done the right thing at the right time. The eyes of the world were on Kentucky, and she cried: "Is there no balm in Gilead? Is there no physician there?" Then why is not the health of the daughter of my people recovered?"

We all agree that the trust was doing wrong, and for that wrong they ought to have been punished, but there was a way and a place. They should have been taken to the proper forum, where the weak and the strong meet upon a common level. Chapter 101, Kentucky Statutes, beginning with Section 3,915, provides a way, and no one was better prepared than Judge O'Rear to explain the line of procedure. That statute fixes a fine of $500 to $5,000, or six months to twelve months in the county jail, or the court may so fine and imprison at the discretion of the jury. Proceedings could have been brought by any one of 119 County Attorneys or by any one of thirty-four Commonwealth Attorneys. The courts are open always, and Judge O'Rear, sitting in the court of last resort, could have seen to it that justice was given them if the cases ever got to his court. Why did he not advise what line to pursue instead of saying:

"You can not push an idea through an Anglo-Saxon's head with a bayonet."

There is no place in this land of the free and home of the brave for mobs and the mob spirit. I think that every man at that peace conference should have said that law and order must reign and that peace must be established, and those in that conference should have met mob violence with that stern determination that would have convinced all that law-breakers could find no encouragement at the State Capitol, and especially none from a member of the Court of Appeals of the State. But, instead, Judge O'Rear threw a bombshell into the camp of Law and Order that kindled more fire in the breasts of the night riders and mob sympathizers than all the speeches and all the editorials that had gone before. Why? Because at that time he was a member of the Court of Appeals of the State. But, instead, Judge O'Rear threw a bombshell into the camp of Law and Order that kindled more fire in the breasts of the night riders and mob sympathizers than all the speeches and all the editorials that had gone before. Why? Because at that time he was a member of the Court of Appeals of the State. But, instead, Judge O'Rear threw a bombshell into the camp of Law and Order that kindled more fire in the breasts of the night riders and mob sympathizers than all the speeches and all the editorials that had gone before. Why? Because at that time he was a member of the Court of Appeals of the State. But, instead, Judge O'Rear threw a bombshell into the camp of Law and Order that kindled more fire in the breasts of the night riders and mob sympathizers than all the speeches and all the editorials that had gone before. Why? Because at that time he was a member of the Court of Appeals of the State. But, instead, Judge O'Rear threw a bombshell into the camp of Law and Order that kindled more fire in the breasts of the night riders and mob sympathizers than all the speeches and all the editorials that had gone before. Why? Because at that time he was a member of the Court of Appeals of the State. But, instead, Judge O'Rear threw a bombshell into the camp of Law and Order that kindled more fire in the breasts of the night riders and mob sympathizers than all the speeches and all the editorials that had gone before. Why? Because at that time he was a member of the Court of Appeals of the State. But, instead, Judge O'Rear threw a bombshell into the camp of Law and Order that kindled more fire in the breasts of the night riders and mob sympathizers than all the speeches and all the editorials that had gone before. Why? Because at that time he was a member of the Court of Appeals of the State. But, instead, Judge O'Rear threw a bombshell into the camp of Law and Order that kindled more fire in the breasts of the night riders and mob sympathizers than all the speeches and all the editorials that had gone before. Why? Because at that time he was a member of the Court of Appeals of the State. But, instead, Judge O'Rear threw a bombshell into the camp of Law and Order that kindled more fire in the breasts of the night riders and mob sympathizers than all the speeches and all the editorials that had gone before. Why? Because at that time he was a member of the Court of Appeals of the State. But, instead, Judge O'Rear threw a bombshell into the camp of Law and Order that kindled more fire in the breasts of the night riders and mob sympathizers than all the speeches and all the editorials that had gone before. Why? Because at that time he was a member of the Court of Appeals of the State. But, instead, Judge O'Rear threw a bombshell into the camp of Law and Order that kindled more fire in the breasts of the night riders and mob sympathizers than all the speeches and all the editorials that had gone before. Why? Because at that time he was a member of the Court of Appeals of the State. But, instead, Judge O'Rear threw a bombshell into the camp of Law and Order that kindled more fire in the breasts of the night riders and mob sympathizers than all the speeches and all the editorials that had gone before. Why? Because at that time he was a member of the Court of Appeals of the State. But, instead, Judge O'Rear threw a bombshell into the camp of Law and Order that kindled more fire in the breasts of the night riders and mob sympathizers than all the speeches and all the editorials that had gone before. Why? Because at that time he was a member of the Court of Appeals of the State. But, instead, Judge O'Rear threw a bombshell into the camp of Law and Order that kindled more fire in the breasts of the night riders and mob sympathizers than all the speeches and all the editorials that had gone before. Why? Because at that time he was a member of the Court of Appeals of the State. But, instead, Judge O'Rear threw a bombshell into the camp of Law and Order that kindled more fire in the breasts of the night riders and mob sympathizers than all the speeches and all the editorials that had gone before. Why? Because at that time he was a member of the Court of Appeals of the State. But, instead, Judge O'Rear threw a bombshell into the camp of Law and Order that kindled more fire in the breasts of the night riders and mob sympathizers than all the speeches and all the editorials that had gone before. Why? Because at that time he was a member of the Court of Appeals of the State. But, instead, Judge O'Rear threw a bombshell into the camp of Law and Order that kindled more fire in the breasts of the night riders and mob sympathizers than all the speeches and all the editorials that had gone before. Why? Because at that time he was a member of the Court of Appeals of the State. But, instead, Judge O'Rear threw a bombshell into the camp of Law and Order that kindled more fire in the breasts of the night riders and mob sympathizers than all the speeches and all the editorials that had gone before. Why? Because at that time he was a member of the Court of Appeals of the State. But, instead, Judge O'Rear threw a bombshell into the camp of Law and Order that kindled more fire in the breasts of the night riders and mob sympathizers than all the speeches and all the editorials that had gone before. Why? Because at that time he was a member of the Court of Appeals of the State. But, instead, Judge O'Rear threw a bombshell into the camp of Law and Order that kindled more fire in the breasts of the night riders and mob sympathizers than all the speeches and all the editorials that had gone before. Why? Because at that time he was a member of the Court of Appeals of the State. But, instead, Judge O'Rear threw a bombshell into the camp of Law and Order that kindled more fire in the breasts of the night riders and mob sympathizers than all the speeches and all the editorials that had gone before. Why? Because at that time he was a member of the Court of Appeals of the State. But, instead, Judge O'Rear threw a bombshell into the camp of Law and Order that kindled more fire in the breasts of the night riders and mob sympathizers than all the speeches and all the editorials that had gone before. Why? Because at that time he was a member of the Court of Appeals of the State. But, instead, Judge O'Rear threw a bombshell into the camp of Law and Order that kindled more fire in the breasts of the night riders and mob sympathizers than all the speeches and all the editorials

Notice! Poultry Raisers

R 4-11-44
CURES

Cholera, Gapes, Limberneck, Roup, Canker, Diarrhoea and all Diseases of Poultry

NONE AS GOOD—NO CURE, NO PAY

Mrs Katie Bryant, Bardstown, Ky., says: "I have used Recipe 4-11-44 for years and think it the best possible. It cures gapes, limberneck without fail."

Will Cosses, Bardstown, Ky., says: "One drop of Recipe 4-11-44 dropped down the bill of a gaping chicken kills the worm and relieves the chick instantly. It is the best preventive I have ever used."

Mfg. and Guaranteed by J. Robt. Crane, Bardstown, Ky. Price 50¢ at all Druggists.

SOLD BY
PENNY'S DRUG STORE STANFORD, KENTUCKY.

THE WARFIELD

Trial 2:24 Trotting. Dark Bay Stallion, 16 hands; foaled August 1901, bred at Village Farm, East Aurora N. Y. First dam Naugthy Girl by Rex American 23200, 4-year-old record 2:11 1-4, sire of Battleton, 4yr. record 2:07 3-4, American Belle 3yr. record 2:12 1-4 and 18 others in 2:20 1/2; a son of onward 1411, record 2:25 1-4, sire of Onward Silver 2:05 1-4 and 170 others in the 2:20 list. Onward was sired by George Wilkes.

Second dam Duerma, sired by Mambrino King 1275, sire of 75 including Lady of the Manor 2:04 1-4, Lord Derby 2:05 3-4, Heir at Law 2:05 3-4, others in 2:20.

3rd dam Dotlet, by Nutwood 600, the sire of 14 in the list.

4th dam, Topaz by Strathmore, 40%, sire of 250 in the list.

5th dam, Millard, by Albion, 6th dam Ned by Edwin Forest, 7th dam Lady Turner by Mambrino Chief II.

The Warfield was bred to only 15 mares. He has 12 foals all up-headed plenty of style, size and substance and plenty of speed. The Warfield is a representative stallion in all the term implies. To say that he has size, substance and speed only in part emphasize the qualities combined in this son of Dare Devil. He has them and they are such symmetrical characters as to make him a stallion among many. His head and neck, body, feet and legs are perfect and when seen in connection with his faultless gait and great beauty are especially impressive. You should see this horse before breeding. You will say you never looked at a better one.

The Warfield is the only stallion that has 7 dams in the great brood mare list. He has two Mambrino King crosses, two Mambrino Patches, one Mambrino Chief, one Chimes one Onward, one George Wilkes, one Electioneer, one Nutwood, one Strathmore, more trotting crosses than any stallion alive.

The Warfield is by Dare Devil, 24858 record 2:09. He by Mambrino King 1279 by Mambrino Patches, 58 by Mambrino Chief 11, Dam Mercedes, by Chimes 5348, by Electioneer 125.

Dare Devil is a great winner. He won the championship at National Horse Show in 1898, class 4; first class 2; first National Horse Show 1899, class 2; first National Horse Show 1900, class 2; first National Horse Show 1900, class 3; first National Horse Show 1900, class 10; first Boston Horse Show 1902, class 3; reserve Boston Horse Show 1902, class 1; second Boston Horse Show 1902, class 3; second Boston Horse Show 1903, class 1; third Boston Horse Show 1903, class 7. He sired Horse Show 1905, class 7. He sired The Beau Ideal 2:15 1-2, sire of Princess Helen 2:05 3-4 Devil's Daughter 2:19 3-4, Sarah Hamlin 2:19 1-4, Triplet 2:22 1-4, Dare Devil, Jr. 2:28 1-2. Will make the present season at our farm one mile from McKinney, Ky., at $15 to insure a living colt.

S. M. OWENS & SON,
McKinney, Ky.

BRIGHAM YOUNG.

Almont Dare 3226

A. S. H. R.

Sired by Dignity Dare 1982, he by Chester Dare 10, he by Black Squirrel 58, he by King William 97, 1st dam Toxaway 4658, also registered in No. 9 A. T. H. R. She by Abdallah Mambrino 3715, he by Almont 53; 2nd dam Lady Davis by Crit Davis, by Bourbon Chief; 3rd dam Mattle S. by Foreign Light, by Foreigner, by Imported Glen 4; 4th dam Bettie C. by Foreign Light, by Foreigner, by Imported Glen 4; 5th dam Copperbottom; 6th dam by Cunningham's Copperbottom; 7th dam by Imported Buzzard.

Almont Dare "the natural show horse without the KNIFE AND KRUPP. PER or weightier shoes. The result of a life long mating with the best sires and dams obtainable and as proof of his rich breeding his colts are winning wherever shown and being offered as high as $250 at 10 days old to $600 at 2 years old.

These colts are not of GRADE MARES, send me a GOOD MARE and get a BREAD WINNER. He is a full brother to Nettleton that sold at a 4-year-old for $600 and to Foxy Dare that has won more premiums than any mare ever sired by Dignity Dare and is of others too numerous to mention.

He is a beautiful bay 16 hands high, weight close to 1200 pounds. The shortest backed one you ever saw and owing to location will make the season at my stable 2 1/2 miles from Hustonville on Liberty pike at $15 to insure living colt. Will also stand a fine young horse at $10 to insure Mares traded or bred elsewhere renders season due. Grass furnished at $2 per month. Personal attention given to all stock, but not responsible for accidents. Correspondence and inspection invited.

Black Joe

The beautiful combined stallion Black Joe, will make the season of 1911 at our barn 1 1/2 miles northwest of Stanford, Ky., known as the J. H. McAlister place at $12.50 to insure a living colt and will also give the season to the parties showing best and finest colt. Colts to be judged by disinterested parties in Stanford, Ky.

PEYTON. so well known in the West End of Lincoln county, at $10 for mares and $20 for jennets, due when colt is foaled or mare traded, removed of part with, or mare bred to any other stock. Peyton by Huff Dudderdar's jack, he by Hubbles Brigadis and out of Jim Poer's Jenett.

Peyton is fine with very large bone and foot, good neck and ear, good quarter, well mounted, 15 hands 1 inch high and admired by all who see him, and is said to be the best mule jack in Lincoln county.

All are invited to come and see him. Phone in residence.

D. S. CARPENTER,
Hustonville, Ky.

Hapsburg 509

We will stand this great coach stallion for the season of 1911 at J. W. Baughman's place on Somerset pike one mile from Stanford, at $10 to insure a living colt. This is one of the finest coach horses ever brought to this part of the country. He is 16.1 hands high and is by imp. Glosster and out of a mare by Wonderful Boy. Anyone wishing a very high bred coach horse to breed on standard bred mares for getting style, speed and action, should see this horse.

Money due when mare is parted with or bred to other stock.

We will also stand a VERY FINE JACK by Napoleon, at the same place at $12 to insure a living colt. He is 15 1/2 hands high and a fine breeder.

Dock Grey

J. W. & H. C. BAUGHMAN,
Stanford, Ky.

Dock

I will stand my fine Shetland stallion Dock for the season of 1911 at the farm of S. J. Embry on the Lancaster pike, at $10 to insure a living colt. This jack is 15 hands 2 inches high, black with white points, fine style and great bone and foot and has proved himself a great breeder. His colts have always brought the top prices. It will pay you to see this jack before breeding your mares.

S. M. OWENS & SON,
McKinney, Ky.

Catarrh.

Cured by The Marvel of The Century, B. B. —Tested for 30 Years.

Hawking, spitting, toot, breath, discharges of yellow matter permanently cured with pure Botanical ingredients. To prove it we will send you a sample.

SAMPLE TREATMENT FREE

CATARRH IS NOT ONLY DANGEROUS BUT IT CAUSES ULCERATIONS, DEATH AND DECAY OF BONES, KILLS AMBITION AND OFTEN CAUSES LOSS OF APPETITE, AND REACHES TO GENERAL DEBILITY, IDIOTY AND INSANITY. IT NEEDS ATTENTION AT ONCE.

Cure it by taking Botanic Blood Balm (B. B. B.) it is a quick radical permanent cure because it rids the system of the poison germs that cause catarrh at the same time Blood Balm (B. B. B.) purifies the blood, does away with every symptom of catarrh. B. B. B. sends a tingling flood of warm, rich pure blood direct to the paralyzed nerves, and parts affected by catarrh poison, giving warmth and strength just where it is needed, and in this way making a perfect lasting cure of catarrh in all its forms, DRUGISTS or by express, $1 PER LARGE BOTTLE, with directions for home cure. SAMPLE SENT FREE BY WRITING BLOOD Balm CO., Atlanta Ga. Describe your trouble and free medical advice given. Sold by Shugars and Tanner.

A Discouraged Fighter.
He isn't so much of a fighter as he used to be.

"No. You see, he was always looking for some one who could whip him, at least that's what he said."

"Well?"

"Well, he found him."

PERCHERON STALLION, iron gray subject to register, 7 years old, weighs 1,650 pounds will make the season of 1911 at my home on the old Isaac Shelby place, two miles south of Shelby City on Hustonville pike at $12.50 to insure a living colt.

This horse was but recently shipped from Oklahoma, where his colts equalled the very best in their class.

See him before booking your mares.

Care taken to prevent accident or escape. A lien retained on colts for the season money.

ALTO.

PERCHERON STALLION, iron gray subject to register, 7 years old, weighs 1,650 pounds will make the season of 1911 at my home on the old Isaac Shelby place, two miles south of Shelby City on Hustonville pike at $12.50 to insure a living colt.

He is a black jack with white points, five year old, 14 1/2 hands high and has fine breeding.

Will serve mares at $8 to insure a living colt. Money due when foaled or mare is parted with.

J. M. LAIR,
Stanford, Ky.

R. F. D. No. 1,
25-8

ALTO.

Combined stallion. Will make the season of 1911 at J. N. Denny farm, 4 1/2 miles from Lancaster, on Richmon pike at $20.00 to insure a living colt.

Rex Arbuckle, 1467 by Rex McDonald 833 he by Rex Denmark 840, 1st dam Miss Richmond 551, by King Richard, by Peavine 58, 2d dam Jennie Lynn, 361, by Stonewall Jackson, 72 by Washington Denmark 64, 3d dam Florence by Sand Maupin's Drennon. Mares sold, traded or bred to any other horse without consent, the money will be claimed for service rendered by our horse. Mares kept at 10 cents per day on grass but not responsible for accidents or escapes. A lien retained on colts for the season money.

DENNY BROS.,
Lancaster, Ky.

ALTO.

Combined stallion. Will make the season of 1911 at J. N. Denny farm, 4 1/2 miles from Lancaster, on Richmon pike at $20.00 to insure a living colt.

Rex Arbuckle, 1467 by Rex McDonald 833 he by Rex Denmark 840, 1st dam Miss Richmond 551, by King Richard, by Peavine 58, 2d dam Jennie Lynn, 361, by Stonewall Jackson, 72 by Washington Denmark 64, 3d dam Florence by Sand Maupin's Drennon. Mares sold, traded or bred to any other horse without consent, the money will be claimed for service rendered by our horse. Mares kept at 10 cents per day on grass but not responsible for accidents or escapes. A lien retained on colts for the season money.

DENNY BROS.,
Lancaster, Ky.

ALTO.

Combined stallion. Will make the season of 1911 at J. N. Denny farm, 4 1/2 miles from Lancaster, on Richmon pike at $20.00 to insure a living colt.

Rex Arbuckle, 1467 by Rex McDonald 833 he by Rex Denmark 840, 1st dam Miss Richmond 551, by King Richard, by Peavine 58, 2d dam Jennie Lynn, 361, by Stonewall Jackson, 72 by Washington Denmark 64, 3d dam Florence by Sand Maupin's Drennon. Mares sold, traded or bred to any other horse without consent, the money will be claimed for service rendered by our horse. Mares kept at 10 cents per day on grass but not responsible for accidents or escapes. A lien retained on colts for the season money.

DENNY BROS.,
Lancaster, Ky.

ALTO.

Combined stallion. Will make the season of 1911 at J. N. Denny farm, 4 1/2 miles from Lancaster, on Richmon pike at $20.00 to insure a living colt.

Rex Arbuckle, 1467 by Rex McDonald 833 he by Rex Denmark 840, 1st dam Miss Richmond 551, by King Richard, by Peavine 58, 2d dam Jennie Lynn, 361, by Stonewall Jackson, 72 by Washington Denmark 64, 3d dam Florence by Sand Maupin's Drennon. Mares sold, traded or bred to any other horse without consent, the money will be claimed for service rendered by our horse. Mares kept at 10 cents per day on grass but not responsible for accidents or escapes. A lien retained on colts for the season money.

DENNY BROS.,
Lancaster, Ky.

ALTO.

Combined stallion. Will make the season of 1911 at J. N. Denny farm, 4 1/2 miles from Lancaster, on Richmon pike at $20.00 to insure a living colt.

Rex Arbuckle, 1467 by Rex McDonald 833 he by Rex Denmark 840, 1st dam Miss Richmond 551, by King Richard, by Peavine 58, 2d dam Jennie Lynn, 361, by Stonewall Jackson, 72 by Washington Denmark 64, 3d dam Florence by Sand Maupin's Drennon. Mares sold, traded or bred to any other horse without consent, the money will be claimed for service rendered by our horse. Mares kept at 10 cents per day on grass but not responsible for accidents or escapes. A lien retained on colts for the season money.

DENNY BROS.,
Lancaster, Ky.

ALTO.

Combined stallion. Will make the season of 1911 at J. N. Denny farm, 4 1/2 miles from Lancaster, on Richmon pike at $20.00 to insure a living colt.

Rex Arbuckle, 1467 by Rex McDonald 833 he by Rex Denmark 840, 1st dam Miss Richmond 551, by King Richard, by Peavine 58, 2d dam Jennie Lynn, 361, by Stonewall Jackson, 72 by Washington Denmark 64, 3d dam Florence by Sand Maupin's Drennon. Mares sold, traded or bred to any other horse without consent, the money will be claimed for service rendered by our horse. Mares kept at 10 cents per day on grass but not responsible for accidents or escapes. A lien retained on colts for the season money.

DENNY BROS.,
Lancaster, Ky.

ALTO.

Combined stallion. Will make the season of 1911 at J. N. Denny farm, 4 1/2 miles from Lancaster, on Richmon pike at $20.00 to insure a living colt.

Rex Arbuckle, 1467 by Rex McDonald 833 he by Rex Denmark 840, 1st dam Miss Richmond 551, by King Richard, by Peavine 58, 2d dam Jennie Lynn, 361, by Stonewall Jackson, 72 by Washington Denmark 64, 3d dam Florence by Sand Maupin's Drennon. Mares sold, traded or bred to any other horse without consent, the money will be claimed for service rendered by our horse. Mares kept at 10 cents per day on grass but not responsible for accidents or escapes. A lien retained on colts for the season money.

DENNY BROS.,
Lancaster, Ky.

ALTO.

Combined stallion. Will make the season of 1911 at J. N. Denny farm, 4 1/2 miles from Lancaster, on Richmon pike at $20.00 to insure a living colt.

Rex Arbuckle, 1467 by Rex McDonald 833 he by Rex Denmark 840, 1st dam Miss Richmond 551, by King Richard, by Peavine 58, 2d dam Jennie Lynn, 361, by Stonewall Jackson, 72 by Washington Denmark 64, 3d dam Florence by Sand Maupin's Drennon. Mares sold, traded or bred to any other horse without consent, the money will be claimed for service rendered by our horse. Mares kept at 10 cents per day on grass but not responsible for accidents or escapes. A lien retained on colts for the season money.

DENNY BROS.,
Lancaster, Ky.

ALTO.

Combined stallion. Will make the season of 1911 at J. N. Denny farm, 4 1/2 miles from Lancaster, on Richmon pike at $20.00 to insure a living colt.

Rex Arbuckle, 1467 by Rex McDonald 833 he by Rex Denmark 840, 1

THE INTERIOR JOURNAL.

Established 1872

SHELTON M. SAUFLEY, Publisher

$1 A YEAR STRICTLY IN ADVANCE

Entered at the postoffice at Stanford as second class mail.

DEMOCRATIC TICKET.

For Circuit Judge
HON. CHARLES A. HARDIN, of Mercer County

Gov. Woodrow Wilson, of New Jersey has been absent from that state for several weeks, and as a consequence, it is seriously proposed that his salary, during the time he has been absent, be withheld from him, and paid to the Lieutenant Governor, who has been acting in his stead. It seems that under the law of that State, the Lieutenant Governor is not paid when he becomes acting Governor in such a case. In Kentucky, where the Governor leaves the State, the Lieutenant Governor acts in his stead, and receives the same salary that the Governor for the services of one. Indeed on one occasion, during the present administration, while the Legislature was in session the Lieutenant Governor received his salary while the Governor while the Lieutenant Governor received the salary also. Thus the Lieutenant Governor was paid two salaries for Governor It seems things are ordered differently in New Jersey.

The only people who have the least doubt that Kentucky will go overwhelmingly Democratic next fall are the Democratic editors who would throw a fit if Senator McCreary is nominated. And these, really, only affect not to believe it. But all the game these disgruntled pencil pushers are doing the party harm. Nobody objects to their saying what they please for their man, but it's neither just nor decent to throw dirt at the splendid man who, in spite of their mud slinging, doesn't throw back and will be Kentucky's next Governor—Big Sandy News.

Will wonders never cease. Mis-fit Gus Willson allowed the law to take its course and Roger Warren, a negro murderer was hanged at Frankfort. If Willson had always been equally as particular and conscientious, a certain murderer would have long since been where it is even hotter than it is here now instead of disgracing a seat in Congress.

Ed. Leigh has at last gotten it out of his constitution. He has declared for Addams. If there had been anybody else against McCreary, Addams might not have gotten him.

Ed. Leigh says he don't understand the drift of Senator Blackburn's speech, at Owensboro. That's easy. The Ex-Senator is drifting about for somebody to tow him into the Senatorial harbor.

Hon. Ed Franks, a candidate for the republican nomination for governor, has an interesting five-column advertisement in this issue of the I. J. See it on the inside pages. Also Senator Paynter's neat little adv. Franks does

WE MAKE LOANS

On approved security whenever conditions warrant it. Preference, of course, being given to our regular depositors!

State Bank AND Trust Co.
STANFORD, KENTUCKY

not mince words in discussing the candidacy of Judge O'Rear. On with the dance; let joy be unreined.

(Advertisement)

STRENGTH OF PAYNTER APPARENT

HIS RECORD BEST REFUTATION OF CAMPAIGN UTTERANCES OF HIS OPPONENT—EDDIE TORS STAND FOR THE RIGHT.

Frankfort, Ky., May—Reports coming in to the headquarters here of United States Senator Thos. H. Paynter, who is seeking an endorsement in the Democratic State primary election of July 1, are that he is growing in strength daily, as Kentucky Democrats become better acquainted with the record he has made, and is making, in that high office, and with the character of propagandistic campaign that is being waged against him. The information received is to the effect that the voters are realizing more clearly the caliber of Senator Paynter and of his opponent, the Congressman from the first district, and to know that the latter does not measure up to the big job he is seeking.

Senator Paynter continues to conduct his campaign in the highclass dignified manner in which he first presented his candidacy, and he has received letters from hundreds of Democrats, living in every section of the state, commanding his course in avoiding acrimonious joint debates, that could only result in injury to the party which has in the past so significantly honored him and he relies upon his record as the best evidence of his ability to faithfully and intelligently serve his party and his state.

How Senator Paynter ranks among the big fellows at Washington recently has been attested in the committee assignments in the Senate. He was made chairman of the committee to examine into the civil service, and is a member of the committee on Claims, Judiciary, Industrial Exposition, Philippines and Privileges and Elections. No new Senator could hope to take such a commanding position in the event of the election of a Democratic President, as now seems assured, no one now in Congress could attain greater prominence or more for his State than he.

That Congressman James' plan of campaign has not met with the approval of the people is best evidenced in the newspaper criticisms of some of his wild declarations.

"Nobody believes that Paynter is dishonest," writes Editor Leigh of the Bowling Green Messenger, referring to James' utterances.

"Democrats should stand together and build each other up by encouraging public confidence in all their leading men, so that in the general election any of them can lick any Republican," advises the Winchester Democrat.

"Paynter was an able jurist before he went to the Senate and has proven himself just as able a law maker as he was a judge," writes Editor Westover in the Grant County News, and continues: "If the Democrats are wise they will keep Paynter where he is for another term."

In another editorial paragraph the editor of the Winchester Democrat says: "It will be hard to make the people of Kentucky believe that he is not honest, patriotic and a Democrat. His vote for Lorimer, which James thinks an awful crime, really shows moral courage of the highest kind. Paynter knew it to be an unpopular vote, but after hearing all the evidence he did not think it sufficiently strong to convict."

The editor of the Henry County News writes: "Before the Lorimer episode we regarded Senator Paynter with comparative indifference, but by virtue of his part in it, he has risen high in our estimation. Such a man who can resist the temptation to play at the galleries, for the sake of his duty as he sees it, deserves to be reelected in the Senate."

That veteran of the Kentucky press, Col. W. P. Walton, of Lexington, writing in the Herald, reviews Senator Paynter's response to the attacks made by James and concludes: "Senator Paynter's friends are greatly elated over his strong manly and honest statements, and they think the man who is charged with deliberate intention to misrepresent him will pay dearly for it. The Senator is a gentleman, a Democrat and a man of the highest integrity."

MAYBE HE CAN'T READ HIS OWN WRITING

(Danville Messenger)

The committee in charge of the newspaper men's meeting at Cervine Springs is trying to get Col. W. P. Walton, of Lexington, to read a paper—a feature the boys would greatly enjoy but the promoters are on a cold trail. For several years, while serving on this committee, we tried faithfully to get him to do this stunt, but he always side-stepped. One time, in Frankfort, he agreed, but when the boys gathered in session there, he was attacked by stage fright, and Mr. Elwanger kindly read it for him.

However, the fact remains that he is the best all-round newspaper man in the state, and one of the most popular. It may be one reason for this popularity lies in the fact that he is not always bobbing up making speeches.

During the Democratic Senate caucus Senators Bailey, of Texas, and Marne, of New Jersey engaged in a heated controversy over the action of the caucus in binding Democratic members of the Senate to support the resolution of Senator Martin, of Virginia, in referring the Lorimer investigation to the committee on Privileges and Elections.

Special Offer

On This Season's Most Desirable Article

LONG SILK GLOVES

In Black, White Navy, Lavendar and Tan.

Special price on any for 10

Days

$1 Per Pair

$1, $1.25 and $1.50
Values Included In This Lot.

Take Any At $1.

Severance & Son,
Stanford, Ky.

Instructions For Issuing Shipping and Trailing Certificates In Kentucky

Each movement of sheep from a county, or railroad shipment, must be accompanied by a "certificate of inspection", made out especially for that particular movement or shipment.

Inspectors will rottly all shippers who purchase sheep in their county to this effect and also that they should only buy sheep from flocks which have been inspected on the farms where originating, and round free from scabies. After purchasing a "lot" of sheep and determining on a date for shipment, the shipper will make application to the inspector for a certificate; giving the number of head in the lot and stating from whom purchased. The inspector will then refer to his record (which should be kept in a book containing all inspections made) and if all the shipper's purchases are from flocks which have been inspected and found free from scabies, a certificate will be issued, written in ink or indelible pencil in the shipper's name advertising the entire lot, or two certificates if going under two billings to different markets. The shipper will turn this certificate over to the railroad company to be attached to the way bill. This certificate should be marked "for railroad shipment".

If the shipper should apply for a certificate for sheep originating in flocks, which have not been inspected it will then be necessary to inspect such sheep before issuing the certificate and as the Board's regulations require inspections to be made before movement, all inspections should be made on the farm, it is possible to do so.

Certificates covering sheep to be trailed, should be issued in the same general manner as for railroad shipments, and inspectors will demand that sheep being trailed into their counties be accompanied by a certificate. Such sheep if infected, should be returned to their former pasture if not dangerous to do so, or quarantined and proper action taken. If not infected they should be quarantined until knowledge is learned concerning their former premises.

Both of these classes of certificates shall be issued on the "Certificate of Inspection" blank of the Kentucky Live Stock Sanitary Board and be stamped with the following:

THE SHEEP RESIGNED IN THIS CERTIFICATE IF MOVED INTERSTATE SHALL BE SUBJECT TO THE REGULATIONS OF THE U. S. BUREAU OF ANIMAL INDUSTRY.

All certificates shall be issued in duplicates, the original to be given to the shipper or trailer and the duplicate forwarded to this office.

Certificates covering shipments or movements on sheep which have been previously inspected and reported to this office, need not be again reported, but if that be a first inspection of the entire lot or portion of same, a 24B report shall be made out covering such animals as have not been previously reported.

Please return to this office all certificate books which are not stamped as above required.

Very Respectfully,

A. J. PAYNE,
State Live Stock Inspector

May 2nd, 1911

A FATHER'S VENGEANCE.

Would have fallen on anyone who attacked the son of Peter Bondy, of South Rockwood, Mich., but he was powerless before attacks of Kidney trouble. "Doctors could not help him," he wrote, "so at last we gave him Electric Bitters and he improved wonderfully from taking six bottles. Its the best Kidney medicine I ever saw." loss of appetite, warm of kidney trouble, tired feeling, nervousness, able that may end in dropsy, diabetes of Bright's disease. Beware; take

Electric Bitters and be safe. Every bottle guaranteed. 50 cents at Penny's Drug Store

22-8

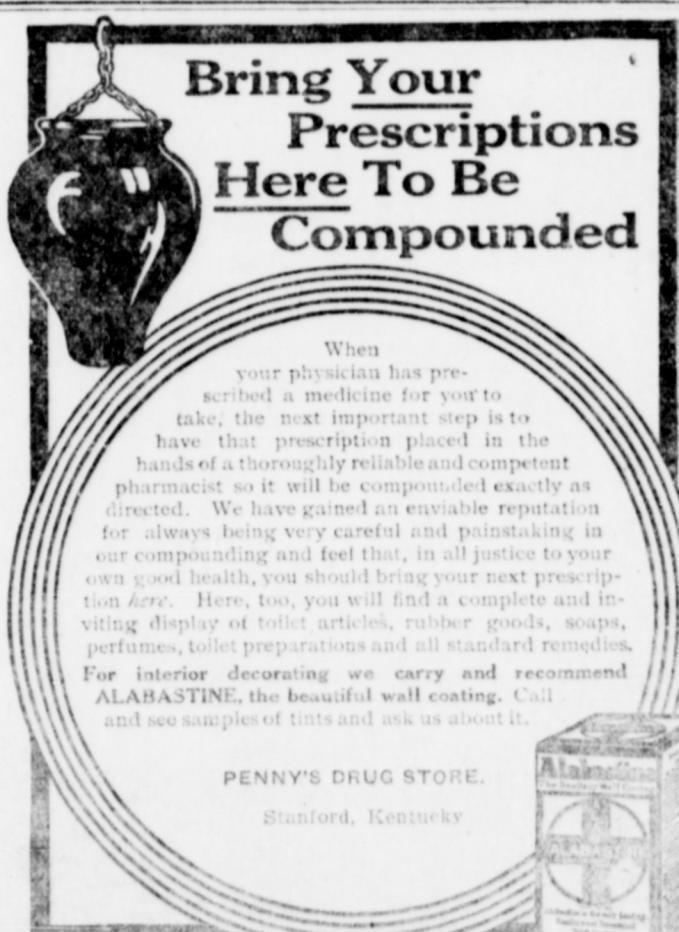

NOTICE OF DISSOLUTION.

The Hustonville Roller Mill Com-

H. J. McRoberts.

Stanford, Kentucky.

FIRST NATIONAL BANK,
STANFORD, KENTUCKY

STRONG PROGRESSIVE ACCOMMODATING
And Seeking Your Bank Account.
CAPITAL $50,000.

SURPLUS $25,000.
Open an Account With us
TO-DAY.

RURAL TELEPHONES.

MR. FARMER: Make your home as modern for your family as a ice, residence, and place yourself in a position to get the latest market quotations at any time. This can be accomplished by means of our telephone service which you and your neighbors can get for a sum that is small compared with the benefits received. Call or address our nearest office or write direct to headquarters, Nashville, Tenn., for information regarding our special "Farmers' Line" rate. If you are not at present enjoying telephone service, we can immediately interest you. Our lines cover the States of Kentucky, Tennessee, Mississippi, Louisiana and the Southern portion of Indiana and Illinois.

EAST TENNESSEE TEL. & TEL. CO.

(INCORPORATED)

SHE SUFFERED FIVE YEARS

Finally Cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Eric, Pa.—"I suffered for five years from female troubles and at last was almost helpless. I went to three doctors, and they did me no good, so my sister advised me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and when I had taken only two bottles I could see a big change, so I took six bottles and I am now strong and well again. I don't know how to express my thanks for the good it has done me and I hope all suffering women will give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial. It was worth its weight in gold."—Mrs. J. P. ENDLICH, R. E. D. No. 7, Erie, Pa.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from native roots and herbs, contains no narcotic or harmful drugs, and to-day holds the record for the largest number of actual cures of female diseases we know of, and thousands of voluntary testimonials are on file in the Pinkham laboratory at Lynn, Mass., from women who have been cured from almost every form of female complaints, such as inflammation, ulceration, displacements, fibroid tumors, irregularities, peridol pains, backache, indigestion and nervous prostration. Every suffering woman owes it to herself to give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial.

If you want special advice write, Mrs. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass., for it. It is free and always helpful.

TO TRAVELERS.

I am the agent in this section for the Great American Steamship Line to all European points. See me, when you think of traveling.

W. LANDGRAF,
Waynesburg, Ky.

BETSY'S POINTERS:

What has become of the old fashioned cook who had something on the stove that would not be done until day after tomorrow? But promptness governs the day. If you want up to date groceries you immediately think of Coffey & Coleman."

Try a "never fail" kerosene can for 90 days. If not the best you ever saw or used, bring it back and get your money. That's the way we sell it.

COFFEY & COLEMAN,
Phone 196. Prompt Delivery.

Fresh Oysters
SERVED IN ANY STYLE.

THE BEST MEALS - IN
$TANFORD
Carson's - Restaurant
W. A. CARSON, PROP.

FLY NETS &
SUN SHADES

FOR SUMMER DRIVING

the comfort of both horses and drivers should be specially considered by securing a proper outfit of lap robes, blankets, fly nets and other necessaries from our complete assortment of horse goods. There are light, but strong and durable, single and double harness, admirably suited to road purposes, along with a full line of work harness of the best quality at flat prices.

J. C. MCCLARY, Stanford.

PERSONAL and SOCIAL

T. Albert Phillips, spent Saturday and Sunday in London.

Homer Wray is out again after severe attack of tonsilitis.

Greenberry Bright and family have rented and moved into the W. A. Yager property on Danville avenue.

Palo Sampson, of Columbus, Ohio, is the guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. N. W. Sampson.

Mrs. Ashley, of Lancaster, has purchased of P. W. Warner the property on Logan avenue, formerly occupied by Greenberry Bright, and have moved to it.

Mrs. J. A. Singleton has returned from a visit to her daughter, Mrs. Hendrick Hayes, at Louisville. She was accompanied by Mrs. Cicero Reynolds.

Mrs. H. V. Pennington and G. S. Brock, of London, were here on business last week.

J. L. Bentzley and little son and Mrs. S. D. Bartley of Stanford were guests Monday of Mr. and Mrs. James A. Beazley.

Miss Nannie Woods Engleman and Robert Coffey of Stanford were recent visitors to Lancaster.—Lancaster Recorder.

Mrs. J. H. Baughman and Mrs. M. S. Baughman attended a reception given by Mrs. L. M. Dunn at Danville last week.

Mrs. Rodman Keenan, of Harrodsburg, was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Beemer Adams and other relatives at Danville during the Carnival.

Miss Kate Harding, of Catering, Va., who has been with my cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Smith, while attending school here, returned home Saturday.

Dave Lynn went up to London on a business trip Saturday.

Rev. A. S. Morett, of Lebanon, well traveled here, came up to attend the Presbytery Sunday. He was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. George D. Warren and other friends while here.

Mrs. Carroll Bailey, and handsome children, of Crab Orchard, spent several days here last week the guest of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Tate and other friends and relatives.

Mrs. H. W. Rice and Mrs. Nellie Rice, and son, Earl, of Livingston, Ky., the guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Fields.

Miss Mattie Lee Hubble returned from Lexington last Friday night where she graduated with high honors from Hamilton College. Logan Hubble went over and attended the Commencement exercises.

R. G. Wilmot, cashier of the bank at Neton, Fleming county, spent Sunday at his old home in Brodhead head with his many friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Hume Logan and children, motored up from Louisville and spent several days here and at Crab Orchard with Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Baughman.

Dr. Edward Alcorn of Hustonville, has returned from Charlotte, N. C., where he attended the 17th annual meeting of the Southern Railway Surgeons.

Postmaster John Blair, of Hustonville, attended the Presbytery here Sunday. He was the guest of Dr. and Mrs. R. L. Davison while here.

Mrs. William Severance has been confined to her bed for several days with a badly sprained ankle.

Mrs. W. H. Shanks will entertain for Miss Sallie Taylor Woods with a dinner at 6 o'clock Monday, June 15th, at her beautiful home on Logan Avenue.

Mrs. Sam J. Embry, Jr., will entertain for Miss Woods and her bride at party at dinner on the wedding eve, Wednesday, June 7th, at 6 p. m.

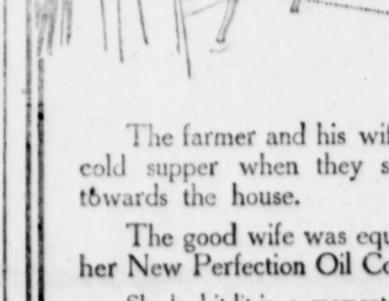

The Warren Grigsby Chapter, U. D. C., will meet this Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. W. H. Higgins.

COFFEY & COLEMAN,
Phone 196. Prompt Delivery.

Fresh Oysters
SERVED IN ANY STYLE.

THE BEST MEALS - IN
$TANFORD
Carson's - Restaurant
W. A. CARSON, PROP.

FLY NETS &
SUN SHADES

FOR SUMMER DRIVING

the comfort of both horses and drivers should be specially considered by securing a proper outfit of lap robes, blankets, fly nets and other necessaries from our complete assortment of horse goods. There are light, but strong and durable, single and double harness, admirably suited to road purposes, along with a full line of work harness of the best quality at flat prices.

J. C. MCCLARY, Stanford.

New Perfection
WICKS & SONS
Oil Cook-stove

Standard Oil Company
(Incorporated)

Railroad

Fares Rebated AT OUR TRANSFER DESK.

Until July 1st.

Special For Mail Order Customers Only

Collar Foundations, Net Covered, Strong and Washable, High and Low Shapes. Sizes 12 to 15 inches 10c values, Special 3 for 10c.

STEWART DRY GOODS CO.,

INCORPORATED.

Louisville, Kentucky.

PURCHASE A ROUND TRIP TICKET FROM YOUD HOME TO LOUISVILLE. WHEN YOU HAVE COMPLETED YOUR SHOPPING IN THIS STORE, TAKE YOUR RETURN TICKET AND YOUR SALE CHECK (WHICH WILL BE GIVEN WITH EACH PURCHASE,) TO THE CREDIT DESK, (SOUTH END OF THE BUILDING, FIRST FLOOR. WE WILL REFUND TO YOU IN CASH YOUR RAILROAD FARE, PROVIDED IT IS NOT OVER 5 PER CENT OF THE TOTAL AMOUNT OF YOUR PURCHASE. IF YOUR RAILROAD FARE IS MORE THAN 5 PER CENT OF YOUR PURCHASES 5 PER CENT WILL BE REFUNDED ON THE AMOUNT OF YOUR PURCHASE.

Rev. A. G. Coker, of King's Mountain will preach at Fairview church next Sunday, June 4th, at 11 a.m. A full attendance is desired.

The ladies of the Crab Orchard Baptist Church will give a strawberry and ice cream supper in their church yard, Friday evening, June 2. Everybody is invited to go and help a good cause.

SHORT LOCAL NEWS

W. H. Williams, the popular west end correspondent, is convalescing from a severe attack of acute indigestion.

Mr. J. H. Rount, of Lexington has turned after a visit to his brother J. W. Rount and family.

Rev. A. S. Morett, of Lebanon, well traveled here, came up to attend the Presbytery Sunday. He was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. George D. Warren and other friends while here.

Mrs. Carroll Bailey, and handsome children, of Crab Orchard, spent several days here last week the guest of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Tate and other friends and relatives.

Mrs. H. W. Rice and Mrs. Nellie

Rice, and son, Earl, of Livingston, Ky., the guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. M.

Fields.

Miss Mattie Lee Hubble returned from Lexington last Friday night where she graduated with high honors from Hamilton College. Logan

Hubble went over and attended the Commencement exercises.

R. G. Wilmot, cashier of the bank at Neton, Fleming county, spent Sunday at his old home in Brodhead head with his many friends.

Left on hand, five riding cultivators.

Will sell them at a bargain. Pence

40-2.

The interior Journal will publish in its Friday's issue the splendid baccalaureate sermon delivered by Rev. A.

A. Higgins, of Glasgow, to the graduates of the Stanford High School.

SOLD THE WORLD OVER.

PE-RU-NA
THE GREAT TONIC

Carriage painting, rubber tiring, and repairing at prices you can't beat anywhere. J. B. Ely, Junction City, Ky. 38-12.

Next Wednesday and Thursday, May 31 and June 1st, the convention of Institute Instructors will be in session in Frankfort. Prof. J. W. Ireland of this place, is one of the committee on resolutions.

Let me insure your tobacco against loss or damage by hail, the tobacco growers' worst enemy. Low rate R. R. Newland Agent, 5-100.

Lawn mowers, hose and sprinklers at Geo. H. Farris'.

Carriage painting, rubber tiring, and repairing at prices you can't beat anywhere. J. B. Ely, Junction City, Ky. 38-12.

While fishing near the mouth of Cedar Creek, Willie C. White slipped into deep water at the well-known "Ten Foot Hole", and as he could not swim, came near drowning. His brother, Robert, attempted to rescue him and also came near being swept away by the surging water. The first named was going down the second time when the quick wit of William Aker suggested the human claim, and the others of the party quickly joined hands and made the rescue. The young man kept a nice string of fish through the exciting time, but as soon as his feet rested on dry land, turned them loose.

White fishing last week, David Scarbrough, of the Fall Lick section, made a very novel catch. Upon raising his fishing pole he and his companions were much surprised to see a large old-time army pistol upon the hook!

It is only a matter of conjecture as to how the weapon came in the river.

Mrs. Carrie Hargis, of near Davison's Mill is visiting her sister, Mrs. E. L. Thompson.

Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Richardson visited Mr. and Mrs. Timothy Naylor, John and Mary Bell and wife of Gosher were guests of John Naylor and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Mullins came up with a crowd from Bee Lick and were guests of the family of George B. Sutton.

Master Joe Cress had as his visitors, Allen, Joplin and Charlie Smith of Brodhead.

G. L. Blankenship sold a heifer to Wm. Dyeshouse for $27 1-2.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Smith, of Brodhead, and their visitor, Miss Odessa Burton, of Hagan, Va., were visiting Mrs. J. M. Cress.

Mr. and Mrs. Cress went up to Martesburg Sunday to attend the burial of Arch Brown.

Will Jones, a quiet, respectable negro of Macksville, died Friday and was buried Sunday. He owned a good number of houses in the colored settlement and left a neat little estate.

McGraw stomach tablets will cure and keep your stomach in fine shape. They stop stomach distress, sourness, belching and heartburn in five minutes. They banish indigestion. G. L. Penny guarantees them. 50 cents.

Rev. David Gentry preached at Bethel church Sunday to a large and attentive audience. His sermon was most interesting. The brethren and sisters have organized a Sunday school at this church with W. H. Barnes as superintendent.

S. A. Sandidge visited his parents near Good Hope church.

The Plan.

• • • •

PURCHASE A ROUND TRIP TICKET FROM YOUD HOME TO LOUISVILLE. WHEN YOU HAVE COMPLETED YOUR SHOPPING IN THIS STORE, TAKE YOUR RETURN TICKET AND YOUR SALE CHECK (WHICH WILL BE GIVEN WITH EACH PURCHASE,) TO THE CREDIT DESK, (SOUTH END OF THE BUILDING, FIRST FLOOR. WE WILL REFUND TO YOU IN CASH YOUR RAILROAD FARE, PROVIDED IT IS NOT OVER 5 PER CENT OF THE TOTAL AMOUNT OF YOUR PURCHASE. IF YOUR RAILROAD FARE IS MORE THAN 5 PER CENT OF YOUR PURCHASES 5 PER CENT WILL BE REFUNDED ON THE AMOUNT OF YOUR PURCHASE.

Rev. W. T. Colson is now leading a large class at the church in vocal music.

Russell Reynolds came home Saturday to visit his mother, Mrs. M. G. Reynolds who is very sick. He found her slightly better. He returned to near Frencherville where he is assisting his uncle, D. O. Lewis on the farm.

Contractor E. G. Procter has erected a fine two-story residence for Jeff Dial.

FOR PUBLIC SERVICE SEASON OF 1911.
The Sensational Performer and Spiney diddy Bred Registered Saddle Stallion

CARROLL PRESTON--4383

(A. S. H. R.)

Bay horse star and hind ankles white, 15.3 1-4, foaled 1906.

Sire, Preston 922 by Washington 54 by Cromwell 73 by Washington Den mark 64 Preston's dam was Belle by Roderick 104 by Mambrino LeGrand 99 by Highland Chief and the dam of Roderick was by a son of Peters' Halcorn 3241.

1st Dam Baby Pence 7649. By Enoch Arden.

2nd Dam Lady Pence. By Almont Forest 2863.

3rd Dam. By Garrard Chief.

CARROLL PRESTON is the finest individual and best performer in Central Kentucky and proved himself one of the most formidable ring horses out last season. He is one of the greatest racking horses seen in years and has a splendid trot with a world of speed and action. His colts are proving him a coming sire and are the kind that will sell high. Will stand at the low fee of $25.00 TO INSURE A LIVING COLT at A. T. Nunnelley's Stock Yards in Stanford.

Good pasture and care at prevailing rates. Lien retained on colt until service is paid. Best of care, but not responsible for accidents. Address,

W. O. WALKER, Stanford, Ky.

(Carroll Preston is nominated in The Saddle Horse Futurity Stake.)

Garrard Chief. 1835

Bay stallion 15-3 hands, foaled summer 1902, said by good judges to be one of the finest stallions living. He is a perfect image of his great sire Chester Dare 10. Mr. J. C. Graves who raised and showed Chester Dare 10 says it is almost impossible for two horses to be more alike than Garrard Chief 1835 and Chester Dare 10. Col. W. A. Barriger of Shelbyville, Ky., has judged this horse at the Texas State Fair several times says he is as fine a horse as he ever saw. Garrard Chief won the championship of the South West at Dallas in 1908, 1909, 1910 and during that time his colts won more than any other herd shown there in saddle classes. At Fort Worth Horse Show in March 1910 Garrard Chief won first in breeding class for saddle stallions and age over 15 good ones, he also won at same place first for five-gaited saddle stallion mare or gelding. He will make the season of 1911 four miles from Stanford on Hustonville pike at $25 to insure living colt. Mares grazed $2.50 per month. Care taken to prevent accidents but not responsible should any occur.

J. H. MURPHY,

STANFORD, KENTUCKY.

PURE BRED POULTRY.
Barred Plymouth Rock eggs, 50¢ for 15. Robert B. Carter, Stanford, Ky., R. F. D. No. 2 24-2.

Those Fighting Game Chickens.
THE GREY GRISTS.
The Prettiest Fowls in the World
Eggs 15 for $3.00
S. J. EMBRY, JR.

For Sale—Indian Runner Duck Eggs.
$1 for setting of 12.
THE Indian Runner is known as the Leghorn of the duck family, for eggs
Mrs. D. E. Proctor, Phone 193.

Barred Plymouth eggs for sale, $1 for 15. Also Indian Runner duck eggs $1 for 12. Mrs. Anderson Nunnelley, McClure Route, Moreland, Ky.

BUFF ORPINGTON
EGGS For Sale 15 for $1
C. C. WITHERS, R. F. D. No. 2
Phone 143-1 1-2.
Stanford, Ky.

Pure Crescent S. C. White Leghorns.
Eggs for setting. Miss Lizzie Davison,
Phone 15.

Pure bred Black Minorcas
Eggs $1 per setting
Mrs. W. H. Wearen, Stanford.

EGGS FOR HATCHING.
Buff Orpingtons. $1 and $2 per 15
Black Minorca. $1 for 15
Farm Range Silver Laced Wyandottes
50 cents for 15. Satisfactory hatch guaranteed.

Miss Anne H. Tribble, Danville, Ky.

S. C. White Leghorns—Diamond strain year 'round layers of large, white eggs $1 per setting.
A. C. Alford Stanford, Ky.

Choice White Wyandotte cockerels.
Eggs $1.50 for 15. Mrs. J. N. Cash.
Stanford.

THOROUGHBRED S. C., R. I., REDS
Eggs for sale $1 for 15
Imported Cock at Head of Yards.
D. M. WALKER, Stanford, Phone 130.

If you want hens that lay in winter,
when eggs are high. Get the S. C.
Buff Orpingtons. Eggs $1 for 15. W.
P. Kincaid, Phone 193, Stanford. 2t.

Indian Runner duck eggs for sale,
$1.00 for 12 say at 5 months old.
Mrs. Cook's famous perpetual layers. Mrs.
R. M. Tate, R. D. No. 1 Hustonville.

S. C. Brown Leghorn eggs, 50 cents per setting. Mrs. J. M. Cress, R. F. D.
No. 4, Stanford. Phone 380 G. Lancaster, Ky.

Imported stock Buff Orpington eggs 75 cents for 15. Baby chicks $2 per dozen. Mrs. W. J. Holtzclaw, Stanford, Ky., Route No. 1 Phone 53-3 1-2

S. A. MILL
Breeder of finest strain
Single Comb Rhode Island Reds
Stock and eggs for sale in season. R.
F. D. No. 3 Lancaster, Ky.

Barred Plymouth Rock eggs. For hatching of the finest breeding. Our chickens are large, big boned, and well barred. Eggs 15 for $1, 100 for $5. Mrs. S. K. Dudderar, R. R. No. 2
Lancaster Ky.

Fine strain S. C. White Leghorns.
Eggs $1 for 15
Heavy laying strain. Eggs $1 for 15
Mrs. J. B. McKee, King's Mountain, Ky.

MR. PROPERTY OWNER—Stop!
Consider! Why not use the best possible when YOU pay the bill?

Hanna's Green Seal

Stands for everything that is best in paint.
The pigments used are properly proportioned and thoroughly compounded.

STUDY THE FORMULA AS SHOWN ON EACH PACKAGE

"HANNA'S GREEN SEAL PAINT is Made to Wear"

FOR SALE BY

L. L. SANDERS, CRAB ORCHARD KY
GEORGE B. PRUITT, MORELAND KY

Don Varrick

This magnificently bred young stallion will make the season of 1911 at my stable near Stanford, Ky., on the Shelby City pike at $15 to insure a living colt. Don Varrick is 16-2 hands a beautiful chestnut, short back heavy bone in fact the highest type of the trotter and perfect disposition. He is by the great Onward Silver 2:05 1-4, that won the $5,000 Transylvania in a seven heat race in 1902 and the same year won the $10,000 Bonner Memorial and the M. and M. all in broken heats and sold for $21,000 and later for $25,000. Don Varrick is bred exactly like Spanish Queen that won the $5,000 Transylvania in 1908 making a record of 2:07 and was classed as one of the four, being one of the greatest money winners on the grand circuit in 1908.

Onward Silver is by Onward, one of the greatest and best sons of George Wilkes. Onward's dam was the dam of Director, the sire of that great family of trotters and pacers. Don Varrick's 1st dam was by Wikes Boy, by George Wilkes a full sister to The Way 2:15-1-4 and half sister to Madeline Patchen on the dam of Rubber 2:10, Winchester 2:19-3-4, Billy Wilton 2:20, and Miss R. 2:30 2nd dam Mary by Bogg's Grey Eagle the dam of The Way and Madeline Patchen.

Don Varrick's dam produced Dr. Conner, that placed a public half mile on the Lexington track at 16 months in 1:08 3-4 and sold to N. W. Hubinger of New Haven for $1,000 she also produced Maggie Igo, that trotted a mile on the same tract at 16 months old in 1:11 and sold for $500. Don Varrick is fast game and always on the trot, very rarely ever leaves his feet. In 6 weeks handling last fall he trotted a quarter on half mile track in 34 1-2. See, half in 1:10 and the mile in 2:27 1-2 on the outside of track. Please note the rich inheritance of speed on both sides, not a missing link for generations. Breed to this fellow and you can't miss the four things every breeder looks for size, disposition, speed and looks. See him before booking your mares. Season money due when mares are parted with or bred to another horse. Mares kept at 10 cents per day and all car taken, will not be responsible for accidents or escapes. Don Varrick is a 2:10 trotter if he had the proper handling.

CLIFTON AND RUSSELL

Clifton is a black jack with light points, 5-years-old last September, 15-1-2 hands high with a matchless head and ear, well set on a rangy neck has plenty bone and substance and as a breeder he is not surpassed.

RUSSELL

is a black jack with light points, 5-years-old last August, full 15-3-4 hands high with as much finish and action as a horse and as a breeder he is the equal of any jack. Both of these jacks will serve mares at $10 to insure a living colt. Trading the mares forfeits the insurance. Care will be taken to prevent accidents, but will not be responsible should any occur. Jennets will be cared for after June 1st, at $20 to insure a living colt.

E. P. WOODS,
J. H. WOODS

ALLEY GREGOR--43401.

—Record, 2:19 3-4.—

Trotter—Chestnut Stallion About 16 Hands, 8 Years Old. Registered, Volume 17.

ALLEY GREGOR 2:19 3-4.
Allerton 5128
Record 2:09 1-4.
Sire of 201; dams of 36, including Nancy Royce 2:06 1-4, Laconia (P) 2:62, Gen. Forrest 2:08, etc.

Pearl McGregor
Record 2:23 3-4, and Alley Gregor 2:19 3-4, and grand dam of Trocar 2:17 1-4.

Jay Bird 5060
Sire of 131; dams of 79.
Lady Frank
By Mambrino Star 585, Great brood mare.
Mambrino Boy 844
Sire of 15; dams of 43.
Nora Wilkes
By George Wilkes 519.
Major Edsall 216
Sire of 1; dam of 1. Nora Wilkes untraced.
Maud B.
Dam of May Bird 2:21 1-4.
Pearl McGregor 2:23 1-4.

ALLEY GREGOR is one of the best trotting stallions in Kentucky. He has a lot of style and finish and it is a great acting horse. Don't wear any boots, just 9 ounce shoes. He ought to make a great sire. His oldest colts are coming two's and show great speed and action. Any one wishing to see one of them can do so on the Lexington track where they are now in training. This is a good chance for the people of Lincoln County to breed into the best families of the trotting blood. Look this horse's breed record over and see how many they have in the list both sire and dam. This great trotting stallion will make the season of 1911 at my stable in Lancaster, Kentucky.

$15 to Insure Living Colt, Sound And All Right.

I am prepared to take care of mares on grass at 10 cents per day. Lien retained on colts for service fee. Money due when mare is traded or parted with care taken to prevent accident but not responsible should any occur.

W. B. BURTON,
Phone. 95
Lancaster, Ky.

All Peavine, 4092.

John

POWHATAN.

Description and Breeding.—Six years old; 15 3-4 hands; a rich colored bay with as much style and action as any body's horse. Sired by Dignity Dare; 1st dam Minnie by Rienzi; this is the same Owens mare that has produced as many good colts as any mare in Lincoln county. This horse in no experiment. I purchased him from L. B. Owens after looking at his colts for two seasons. He is a breeder second to none in Lincoln county. See him before you breed your mares.

TERMS.—$10 to insure a living colt.

THREE GOOD MULE JACKS.

At the same time and place will stand my three good mule jacks at $1 to insure a living colt. Those jacks need no advertising as they are known to breeders all over the country.

Service fee on all the above advertised stock due when colt is foaled, mare sold, traded or bred to other stock. These terms apply to all. Terms.—$25 to insure a living colt but not responsible should any occur.

R. S. SCUDDER, McKinney, Kentucky.

KING EAGLE, Jr.,

well proportioned every way. A combined stallion with plenty of speed, style and action, his colts show that he is a splendid breeder. He will make the season of 1911 at my barn, one mile West of Waynesburg on Fishing Creek at $10 to insure a living colt.

Mares traded parted with or bred elsewhere without my consent forfeits the insurance, and the money becomes due at such transaction. Care taken to prevent accidents but not responsible should any occur.

Phone in residence, Waynesburg Farmers Exchange.

C. G. CALDWELL & SON,
R. F. D. No. 4, Waynesburg, Ky.

Notice.—The first person caught in Barrow's or any pond on our place will be prosecuted to the full extent of the law. S. J. Embry.

King Eagle, Jr., 1st dam was Molie Drennon, she by Old Drennon, 2d dam Copperbottom, and runs back to Davy Crockett.

NOTE.—King Eagle, Jr., is 6 years old dark bay with one white hind foot, nice mane and tail, stands full 17 hands high, weight 1500 pounds and

Silver Wood

Silver Wood, son of Far Wood 1879 record 2:27 1-2, brother to Nor Wood 12-1-2, sire of Lady Constantine 2:12-1-2, Florist 2:12 1-2 and eight others.

Far Wood 2:37 1-2 son of Nut Wood 600 record 2:18 3-4, sire of Manager 2:06 3-4, Lock Heart 2:08 1-2, Alpine 2:10 1-4, and 165 others. Nut Wood 600, record 2:18 3-4, son of Belmont 64. Silver Wood's first dam Princess by Vatican 2:29 1-2, he by Belmont 64, Vatican's dam Hambletonian 10. Far Wood 1679 record 2:27 1-2, 1st dam Nora Wilkes, dam of No. Wood 2:12 1-2, Nora Wood 2:19 1-2. Nora Wilkes, by Geo. Wilkes 519, 2:22 Nut Wood 600, record 2:18 3-4, 1st dam Win Russell, dam of Maud S. 64. Silver Wood's second dam by Thornton's Rattler.

Silver Wood is a handsome bay, standing 15-3 1-2 hands of great style and action and perfect disposition. He has proven a breeder and his own breeding, the Electoneer-Wilkes cross is second to none.

Silver Wood will make the season of 1911 at A. T. Nunnelley's stock yards at $15 to insure a living colt.

Money due when mare is traded or parted with or bred elsewhere.

J. M. PETTUS,
Sanford, Ky.

George Hur

The great draft stallion that has made his own rep, will make the season of 1911 at my place on the Somerset pike at $16 to insure a living colt. He is the sire of the Joe Chancellor horse that sold for $350 and of three mares that sold for $755 at J. H. Baughman's big sale last fall. Nuff Sed. And Clarence Tate refused $450 for a pair of 2-year-old fillies by him.

JESEE AND ENRIQUE

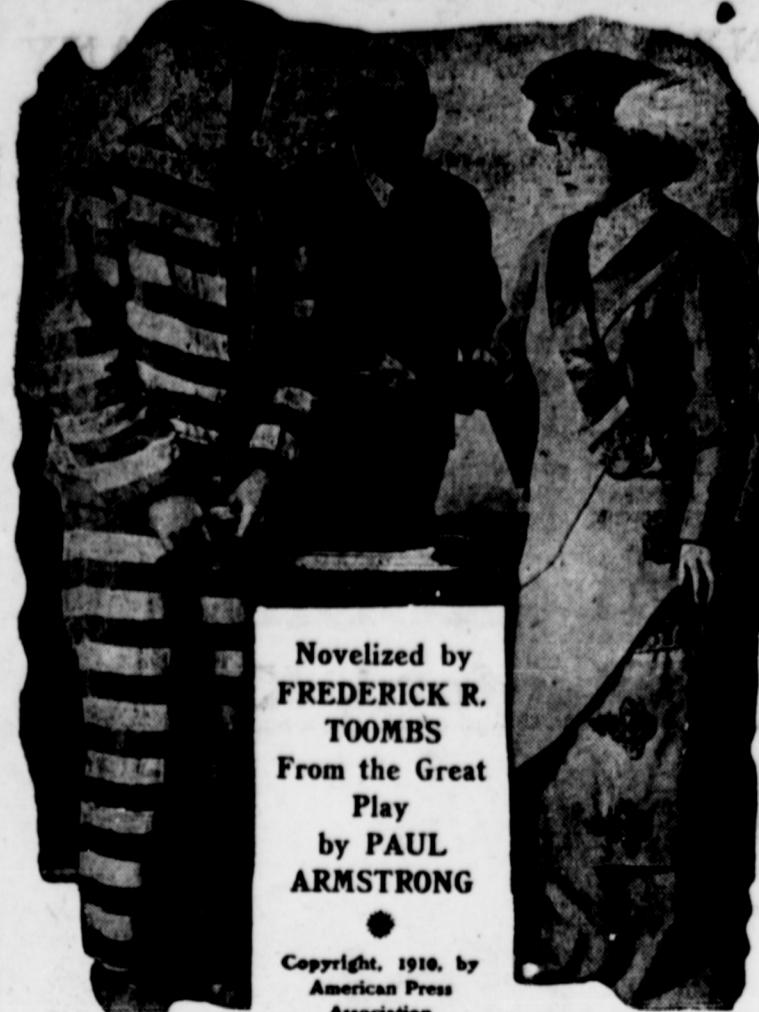

The great show pony Jesse and another fine Shetland stallion will make the season at my place. Everybody knows Jesse, the other pony the crack little horse, Enrique is described in the American Shetland Pony Club as follows: Certificate of registration. This certificate that there has been registered in Volume 16 Club or standard number 10273 of the American Shetland Pony Club stud known as Enrique of Pennken white and black head; white star and snip; under part of neck black extending to knees, large black spot under belly extending up flanks and sides; lower half of tail black; small black spot on left side of back. Foaled May 29 1909.

Sire, The Major of Pennken 9221 Dam Lady Gray 6949. Bred by L. C. Price.

M. S. BAUGHMAN,
Stanford, Ky.

If you really want a clean, sweet pure stomach, free from gas, sourness and

"Alias Jimmy Valentine"

Novelized by FREDERICK R.
TOOMBS
From the Great Play
by PAUL
ARMSTRONG

Copyright, 1910, by American Press
Association

VALENTINE, WARDEN HANDLER AND ROSE LANE.

CONTINUED FROM LAST TUESDAY

One bright winter afternoon, three years after the day Jimmy Valentine began to "go it straight," a young boy, attired in black velvet knickerbockers, turned the knob of the door of the private office of the assistant cashier of the Fourth National bank of Springfield, Ill. Barely eleven years old, Bobby Lane considered it the rarest treat of his life to be allowed a chance to invade this usually busy office and to play at being a banker.

LEE RANDALL, ASSISTANT CASHIER.

The large office had two entrances, one leading into the hall of the large building and another leading into the tiled inclosure in which was being built a spacious new vault. In the middle of the room was a large mahogany desk. Near the hall door and close to the wall was a small mahogany writing table. Three or four comfortable chairs were scattered about the room.

On the glass of the hall door, glazed halfway to the top, was the inscription in trim black letters, "Lee Randall, Assistant Cashier."

And so it was with Lee Randall, alias Jimmy Valentine, that Bobby Lane, the banker's little son, was fond of romping away his (Bobby's) idle hours and with whom he frequently enacted the role of an austere, uncompromising banker.

Very much the same Jimmy Valentine in appearance and manner, Mr. Randall had scored a signal success as assistant cashier, and neither Mr. Lane nor any other official or director had found in the three years occasion for the slightest adverse criticism of the new employee. In fact, he was deemed to be a most valuable acquisition to the executive staff of the bank and had evidenced unusual capacity as a detector of counterfeit notes and as forged signatures on negotiable instruments. Yes, the assistant cashier was a man with a future of promise in store for him, and the Fourth National of Springfield had but a month before offered him the position of cashier, with a thousand dollars a year increase over his present salary. Not one official of the Fourth National could give satisfactory reason for his refusal of the offer. "Very remarkable young man, very," was the comment of the president of the Fourth National when notified of the episode.

"Hurrah! Nobody in the office!" exclaimed Bobby to his sister Kitty, who followed him into the room.

The children, prime favorites with the assistant cashier, were accustomed to do very much as they pleased with him or with his office at this late hour in the day, when business with the public had practically concluded. Almost the only remaining thing for him to do was to attend to certain routine matters connected with the closing of the bank's business for the day.

Sing prison.
"Hello, Bobby! Where's Kitty?" she greeted the boy.

"Outside." He pointed toward the door leading to the vault.
"Where is Mr. Randall?" she continued.

Bobby grinned knowingly.
"You're always asking for Mr. Randall, aren't you?" he asked saucily.

Into Rose Lane's face came suddenly a flare of anger at the lad, but in a moment it was gone. A smile, tender and hopeful and true, supplanted it.

And Bobby, with all the accrued wisdom of eleven years, saw the smile and smiled in return, for he was old enough to understand.

CHAPTER XI.

JIMMY VALENTINE entered his private office from the room where the new vault had been erected. He saw Rose Lane standing close to his desk, where Bobby was presiding with all the dignity that went with his age. The girl's eyes met his, but only for an instant. Valentine lowered his gaze to the floor, his thoughts whirling rapidly through his brain.

True, at one time he had had serious thought concerning the beautiful young woman who had saved him from Sing Sing, from Warden Handler and the warden's favorite pastime of "solitaire."

But of late he had come to realize that he would be doing her a lasting wrong, a vital injustice, to permit himself to make any serious advances toward her. She had been attracted by him. She was now even more interested in him. He was observing enough to learn this. As for his own emotions toward her? He loved her. That no one would deny who saw him in her company. He could not conceal it. Even the infantile Bobby had guessed what he had endeavored to make his secret. Yet he had realized plainly the uncertainty of his position. At any moment the unexpected might happen, or, rather, the expected might happen, and some one would possibly uncover and reveal phases of his past that he would be unable to explain. Such had been the guiding thought of Jimmy Valentine in his social intercourse with the banker's daughter during his tenure as assistant cashier in the bank in Springfield, and now he saw more clearly than ever the wisdom of his course. Doyle—Doyle, the relentless tracker of men—had threatened to "get" him, and Doyle was always an element to be reckoned with.

Although Doyle's threat had been made years before, Valentine had never underestimated the detective's ability nor his tenacity of purpose. While he, Valentine, had taken precautions which he firmly considered would prevent Doyle from getting a hold on him again, yet, after all, it was by no means definitely assured that he would not defeat the ex-convict in his ambition to live "on the square," therefore Valentine must under no circumstances make any serious advances to Bobby perched himself on the assistant cashier's chair and assumed as stern an expression as his childish features and mischievous roving eyes would permit.

"Now, I understand you wish a loan," began Bobby.

"I don't, either," retorted Kitty, sitting herself on a chair in front of the desk.

"Oh, come on and play. When I say 'I understand you wish a loan,' you say 'Yes.'"

"But you won't give me any money."

"If your security is good enough I will. Now," imperiously, "I understand you wish a loan."

"How much can I get?"

"No, no! You say a lot at first: that's business. Now, how much?"

"Fifty thousand dollars."

"That's fine." He paused, judiciously puckering his brows. "That's considerable money."

"That's the most I could think of," decisively.

"Don't talk that way," instructed Bobby. "You would be put out for making breaks like that. Just don't say anything when they find fault. Now, that's considerable money, but of course you have security?" He paused. "Well, say 'Yes.'"

"Yes."

"Well, I thought so—what?"

"What?"

"What have you got in the way of security?" he asked.

"A farm."

"How large a farm?"

"Ten million acres."

"Well, that's good. Now, what grows on this farm?"

She hesitated, then said: "Fruit-peaches and apples."

"That's good. What else?" he prompted.

"Pears."

"Any bananas?" Kitty shook her head. "Very sorry," the lad went on. "We have all the fruit you have in our own back yard. The only fruit farm I could loan money on would be a banana farm. No. No bananas, no loan. Good day."

"But you didn't tell me to say bananas," insisted the girl.

"Tell you! A banker don't tell you anything you ought to know."

After delivering himself of this piece of financial wisdom Bobby endeavored to continue, but Kitty insisted on being the man for awhile. While the argument was in progress the door leading from the vault inclosure opened and in came no less an individual than Jimmy Valentine. He had come from inspecting the new vault, now practically completed, and which he had pronounced as fine a piece of burglar proof construction as he had ever seen—and Jimmy Valentine in his day, as some of us know, had rightly been considered a connoisseur in this particular connection. To settle the dispute the assistant cashier took Kitty out with him to show her the vault, in the building of which she had shown a childlike interest.

No sooner had the door closed behind them when through the hall entrance came Rose Lane, who, gowned in the height of Paris fashion and of more mature development, presented even a more alluring picture of feminine loveliness than she had at the time three years before when, just out of Vassar, she had rescued Jimmy Valentine from the horrors of Sing prison.

"Of course you do." He was becoming more involved every moment.

The girl's smile began to fade. Rather grimly she interrupted him.

"No, I don't see at all," was her announcement.

She moved away from the desk.

"Well, Miss Lane, I—"

The telephone bell rang at his desk.

He bent forward and put the receiver to his ear. As he hung up the receiver a clerk entered.

"Will you have the cash now?" the employee asked.

"In a few minutes."

The telephone bell rang at his desk.

He bent forward and put the receiver to his ear. As he hung up the receiver a clerk entered.

"Will you have the cash now?" the employee asked.

"In a few minutes."

The girl's smile began to fade. Rather grimly she interrupted him.

"No, I don't see at all," was her announcement.

She moved away from the desk.

"Well, Miss Lane, I—"

The telephone bell rang at his desk.

He bent forward and put the receiver to his ear. As he hung up the receiver a clerk entered.

"Will you have the cash now?" the employee asked.

"In a few minutes."

The girl's smile began to fade. Rather grimly she interrupted him.

"No, I don't see at all," was her announcement.

She moved away from the desk.

"Well, Miss Lane, I—"

The telephone bell rang at his desk.

He bent forward and put the receiver to his ear. As he hung up the receiver a clerk entered.

"Will you have the cash now?" the employee asked.

"In a few minutes."

The girl's smile began to fade. Rather grimly she interrupted him.

"No, I don't see at all," was her announcement.

She moved away from the desk.

"Well, Miss Lane, I—"

The telephone bell rang at his desk.

He bent forward and put the receiver to his ear. As he hung up the receiver a clerk entered.

"Will you have the cash now?" the employee asked.

"In a few minutes."

The girl's smile began to fade. Rather grimly she interrupted him.

"No, I don't see at all," was her announcement.

She moved away from the desk.

"Well, Miss Lane, I—"

The telephone bell rang at his desk.

He bent forward and put the receiver to his ear. As he hung up the receiver a clerk entered.

"Will you have the cash now?" the employee asked.

"In a few minutes."

The girl's smile began to fade. Rather grimly she interrupted him.

"No, I don't see at all," was her announcement.

She moved away from the desk.

"Well, Miss Lane, I—"

The telephone bell rang at his desk.

He bent forward and put the receiver to his ear. As he hung up the receiver a clerk entered.

"Will you have the cash now?" the employee asked.

"In a few minutes."

The girl's smile began to fade. Rather grimly she interrupted him.

"No, I don't see at all," was her announcement.

She moved away from the desk.

"Well, Miss Lane, I—"

The telephone bell rang at his desk.

He bent forward and put the receiver to his ear. As he hung up the receiver a clerk entered.

"Will you have the cash now?" the employee asked.

"In a few minutes."

The girl's smile began to fade. Rather grimly she interrupted him.

"No, I don't see at all," was her announcement.

She moved away from the desk.

"Well, Miss Lane, I—"

The telephone bell rang at his desk.

He bent forward and put the receiver to his ear. As he hung up the receiver a clerk entered.

"Will you have the cash now?" the employee asked.

"In a few minutes."

The girl's smile began to fade. Rather grimly she interrupted him.

"No, I don't see at all," was her announcement.

She moved away from the desk.

"Well, Miss Lane, I—"

The telephone bell rang at his desk.

He bent forward and put the receiver to his ear. As he hung up the receiver a clerk entered.

"Will you have the cash now?" the employee asked.

"In a few minutes."

The girl's smile began to fade. Rather grimly she interrupted him.

"No, I don't see at all," was her announcement.

She moved away from the desk.

"Well, Miss Lane, I—"

The telephone bell rang at his desk.

He bent forward and put the receiver to his ear. As he hung up the receiver a clerk entered.

"Will you have the cash now?" the employee asked.

"In a few minutes."

The girl's smile began to fade. Rather grimly she interrupted him.

"No, I don't see at all," was her announcement.

She moved away from the desk.

"Well, Miss Lane, I—"

The telephone bell rang at his desk.

He bent forward and put the receiver to his ear. As he hung up the receiver a clerk entered.

"Will you have the cash now?" the employee asked.

"In a few minutes."

The girl's smile began to fade. Rather grimly

